1961 Town Crier Plans Schedule ; Offers Education

Work! Work! Work! is the term to be used synonymously with Town Crier staff member. After averaging out the number of work hours put in on this issue alone times the number of issues to be put out next year, the total of work hours expected of our staff next year hits a staggering 1900. Although this in itself seems enough to frighten off any "work shirkers", Town Crierites face a rigorous assignment schedule that demands time, skill and patience. In short, the newspaper staff next year will be composed only of those willing to work consistently and hard.

Although the tentative staff for 1961-62 has been chosen, those interested in Crier work need not be discouraged. Any staff members not working up to par will be replaced by persons willing and able to carry on. With the growth of our school and educational system, the Town Crier has also grown. It now offers an education--in action--a place where students are exposed to all facets of newspaper work, from writing the news stories to setting up the pages themselves. Type, headline-making, photography, and copy editing are a few of the necessities of the Town Crier which provide an excellent background in actual journalistic work. Although only on a high-school level, the Town Crier offers to its staff a realistic opportunity in the educational field.

However much work the Town Crier staff does, the success of next year's newspaper depends upon the continued interest and support of the S.H.S. student body. Without you there would be no paper--in fact, not even a reason for a paper. Continued support of the Town Crier will give you an even better paper next year.

GRADUATES VENTURE FORTH

This week SHS is unleashing its Seniors on the innocent outside world. Summoned for the occasion, the National Guard will try to keep a little law and order in the graduation ceremonies.

A few victims of this onslaught are:

1. Local businesses
2. Vacation spots (both local and nation-wide)
3. Colleges, throughout the nation (although their fate is undecided until the fall)

Business managers and efficiency experts will be stunned by SHS graduates in these local businesses: Massachusetts Protective Association, Moore's Mapping and Surveying co., King's, Spag's, Orlando's, Julio's, Food Farm, and many other establishments.

Also to be pitied are the life-guards, restaurant and roadside stand operators, and the local law officials. These brave people will be manning grills, saving lives, and enforcing the law, all quite difficult jobs, especially with Shrewsburyites in their midst. We also understand that Uncle Sam doesn't know when he's well off, more SHS graduates will arm (?) farces or forces.

As hard as it may be to believe, a great many university professors are already stockpiling their tranquilizers as SHS students will soon be storming the colleges, universities, and business schools of all areas.

Among the victims of SHS graduates' applications are: U. of Mass, U of Maine, U. of Florida, Worcester Tech, Worcester Junior, and Framingham State, Clark, B.N., Syracuse, Wentworth, Lowell Tech and such diversified schools as Harvard and University of Miami.

These are the new frontiers for SHS graduates. They are the students into whose hands the United States and its future are placed.

Make good use of your opportunities, graduates. Best of luck, you'll need it !

Lawrence Adams, 7 Harvard Avenue, has indefinite plans for next year, but will spend the summer working for his father in "cesspool Construction". Work at Julio's will keep Susan Adams, 36 Harvard Avenue, occupied for the summer and probably next year also.

Clerical work will be done this summer by Barbara Aijala, 88 Holden Street, before she enters airline school for two years. Industrial Tech will welcome Gerald Amadon, 16 Philips Avenue, after he maps and surveys for Moore's Mapping and Surveying this summer.

Frank Anderson, 6 Hascall Street, plans to work this summer before entering Northeastern U. Another future University student is Robert Arakelion, 191 Maple Avenue. Bob will work at Paper Craft Co. before heading to Syracuse in the fall.

The Massachusetts Protective Association will gain a new worker in Charlotte Aubain, 55 Baker Avenue. Richard Auclair, 549 Lake Street, is an enterprising SHS student. Entering Assumption Prep this summer, he will brush up in studies to prepare for a full schedule this fall.

James Ballard, 38 School St., will be working this summer and will join the Navy in the fall. Also working the summer shift will be Lois Basilissa, 15 Harvard Ave., at Hebert's Candy Mansion. In the fall she will be at Mass. U.

Julio's is where you'll find Robert Baxter, 23 Vista Drive, both this summer and the next year. Among the working girls is also Phyllis Beaudry, 129 Main St. In the summer she's working but in the fall she'll attend Anna Maria.

For Violet Benoit, 43 Lear St., it's work, with a question mark for the summer; but with a definite period this fall. Also in the working group is Edward Berberian, 350 Walnut Street.

John Beig, 215 Prospect St., plans to join Pete at St. Anslem's in the fall, but will work this summer. Among the prospective sailors is Roger Bergman, 8 Lakeside Drive.

It's just work and more work for Gerald Bernard, 12 View St., lots of fun. In the lineup of future hairdressers we find Patricia Biscaglia, 16 Dewey Rd. This summer Pat will be vacationing at Hampton.

James Blakeslee, 58 Old Mill Rd., will be found around the golf course, both playing and working, and in the fall he will enter Wentworth Institute. Susan Blanchard, 18 Hillcrest Ave., may spend the summer "looking" for a job, but she'll enter training at Memorial in the fall.

Joining the working force is Doris Borghesani, 1 Benton St., as is Darlyn Boulay, 17 Commonwealth Ave.

Food Farm is where you'll find Judith Bourbeau, 14 Commonwealth Ave. In the fall she'll attend Becker's. Also among the college bound girls is Ellen Breen, 10 Park St., who, after working this summer, will enter B.U.

John Brennan, 11 Brookway Drive, will beat Julio's this summer and Mass. University this fall. It's wedding bells for Jean Bryant, 488

COLONIALS

Oak Street, on June 24. Worcester Industrial School is where Raymond Budzyna, 17 John St. is headed in the fall, after outdoor work this summer. King's Super Market is where Robert Bukowieki, 365 Lake Street, will be working after graduation, looking ahead to Mass. Trade School in the fall. Working at a Cadillac Co. should be pretty nice work for Gerald Burns, 26 Wesleyan Ave. He's attending Worcester Junior in the fall.

Judith Campaniello, 108 Boylston Circle, is off for California. After sunning she has to put her nose to the grind stone, for it's off to business school. Past president of Student Council, Lynda Carlo, 31 St. James Road, after a summer job is another SHSer ready for U of MASS.

That impressive building, State Mutual, will soon be glorified by the presence of Karen Carlson, 130 Boylston Circle, at least through next year. Another of the many SHS Carlsons is Roberta Carlson, 38 Old Mill Road. She'll be a waitress at a Maine hotel, then nursing.

After a summer job, Sandra Carlson 14 Farview Avenue, is going to Skidmore College in New York. First, for the summer it's Denholm's, then Becker Jr. for Patricia Carter, 56 Oak Street.

There will be an unused bass riddle where Arnold Cary, 22 Woodland Road, once was. He'll be in New Hampshire, then Cornell University. Jacquelyn Casten, 322 Boylston Circle, plans to work for the year following graduation.

It's secretarial work for Josephine Catino, 5 Lakeview Ave. after her graduation from SHS. If you're at Regatta Point you may see Richard Chaffin, 27 Estabrook Road. After a little rowing he can be found at Wentworth Institute.

The resident of 1 Pineland Ave., Roy Chesley, of course, will be working for the summer. Then it's off to Leicester Junior College. Another SHSer at the Massachusetts Protective Association will be Marie Chevalier, 494 Oak Street.

It's work, work, work, for Dale Clapp, 23 Manor Road, after graduation. Another teaching hopeful from SHS is Mary Collamore, 36 Holman Street. She has her sights set on Framingham State.

Carol Ann Cooper, 73 Topsfield Circle, plans to hold down an office job until June next year, then hold down a husband.

June 16, 1961

FACE NEW FRONTIERS

After the drugery of school is over Michael Costello, 38 Harriet Ave plans to join the U.S. Labor Force. Paula Couture, 103 North Street has chosen the Air Force for her future. Moore Survey and Mapping, Inc. will soon have on their payroll Ann Cowan, 191 South Quinsigamond Ave.

Nancy Corbett, 38 Philips Ave, has plenty of traveling ahead, this summer, Ottawa Canada, later Weaver Airline School. It's work, then Worcester Junior and a major in Business Administration for SHS'er William Corrow, 173 Sewell Street.

SHS basketball man, Seth Cummings, 557 Main Street has plans for Bates College. SHS students at Sunset Beach may see the familiar face of life guard, Algird Valiunas, 67 Old Faith Rd. When this work is over he's off for the University of Massachusetts.

Patricia Dauginikas, 52 Phillips Ave., is planning a rollicking time at Hampton Beach which will be followed by furthering her education at college in the fall. Entering the Navy in September, Charles Davis, 78 Old Faith Road, is planning to do some caddying this summer.

Working for a landscaping company this summer, William Davis, 88 Summer St., plans to enter Worcester Junior this fall. Sandra Degan, 35 Colton Lane, plans to do some travelling this summer and save some money which will be spent, no doubt, on some "little extras" for her future days at Western Reserve University in Ohio.

After working at Spag's this summer, John Driscoll, 16 Whitney St., plans to enter Worcester State. Loafing for the summer, Eleanor Drohan, 67 Topsfield Cir., plans to do no loafing as a secretary in the fall.

Summer will find Daniel Foley, 11 Edgemere Boulevard, working at Harrington and Richards, where he will continue working next year. Patricia Foley, 50 Old Mill Road, will work all summer, and next year will either work or attend school.

Working at the Massachusetts Protective Association will be Kathleen Fyrback, 40 Rolfe Avenue, both for the summer and next year. After writing a letter to Bobby about skunks, next year Donna Fuller, Boylston Circle, will be at the Missouri Weavers Airline School.

William Gibris, 428 Oak Street, will work at the ITAM Club during the summer, and then he will go to Wentworth Institute next year. This year and next will find Beverly Girard, 123 Clinton Street, at the Lincoln Plaza Bake Shoppe.

Next Shirley Girard, 123 Clinton Street, will work at the Telephone Company, after working all summer. The summer plans of Rosalind Glenn, 79 Topsfield Circle, consist of a large pile of nothing, after which she will attend Worcester State College.

Edward Flynn, 701 Grafton Street, plans to attempt a reasonable facsimile of work this summer before entering either Lowell Tech or Worcester Junior College in the fall. Working at the Town Hall will occupy the free time of Jeanne Flynn, 48, Elm Street. Next year she is hoping to attend secretarial school.

Working and attending Worcester Junior College are the summer and next year plans of George Graves, 99 Elm Street. Judith Graves, 71 Bay View Drive, will work this summer. Her next year's plans include buying a car.

Next year will find Ralph Gray, 216 Fairlawn Circle, working in Maine after working this summer. At present Dianne Greenwood has no plans, but odds are ten to one you'll find her swimming and skiing on the lake.

Summer will find Pamela Grosso, 26 Worthington Avenue, working at the Wood Farm, and joining the long line of people off for the Cape. Next year she will attend B.U.

Caralyn Hanson, 8 Shirley Road will divide her time between the Cape and working as a telephone operator this summer. In the fall she hopes to combine career and marriage.

It's Marcia Harrington who's going to college this fall. Marcia will be working this summer for the Marlboro Recreation Company, but will take time out for a three week vacation in sunny California.

Virginia Haskell, 21 South Street will serve in the WAF for eighteen months, postponing other plans for the time being. Working at Wilson and Rand Service Station this summer will be David Hight, 26 Old Mill Road. Next year he'll be at Boys Trade.

Robert Holland, 20 Fairfax Street plans to work during the summer and through to the fall. Another workingman will be William Horne, 299 Boylston Street. He'll begin working this summer and continue into the fall.

Dianne Hubbard, 36 Wesleyan Street will be an employee of Wyman Gordon Company starting this summer. A future marine, Leonard Ivel, 55 Shady Lane, will do drafting at Moore Surveying until entering the service.

Joan Jackles, 47 Lear Street, has tentative plans for working this summer. Her plans for next year are as yet indefinite. At Syracuse University this fall will be Susan Jacobs, 7 Oak Ridge Way. As for the summer, she'll be waitressing in Maine.

Sue Johnson, 28 Main Circle, will just take it easy this summer. In the fall, she'll do office work. At hairdressing school this fall will be Elizabeth Jones, 33 Park Street. During the summer she'll be working.

Francis Joubert of 11 Grove Street plans to work this summer. In the fall he'll attend night college. Andria Kallie, Old Mill Road, intends to work in an office while attending hairdressing school next year. She'll also be working this summer.

William Kershaw, 496 Oak Street, will be working at Spag's this summer. Next year's plans - still waiting for his letter. Allen Knight, 5 Farview Avenue, will work this summer and into the fall.

Joseph Kvaracein of 336 South Quinsigamond Ave. will enter the National Guard on June 20th. James Lappone, 46 Harrington Ave. will also enter the service. After the Army he will work at King's Super Market.

Alfred LeBlanc, 80 Lakeside Drive, will work at the Cape during the summer. In the fall he'll go to Worcester Junior College. A future teacher is Janet Lees of 6 Chamberlain Road, who will enter Worcester State College next year. As for the summer, she'll be working at the Wonder Market.

Another Lees, Robert, of the same address will work this summer, after which he plans to attend school. Working at Barnard's this summer will be Jean Lehane of 60 South Street. Next fall she'll enroll at Framingham State College.

Henry Leofanti, Boston Turnpike, will work at Orlando's in the summer. Next year he will be joining the Air Force. It's college in the fall for Henry Leone of 11A Olympia Ave. In the summer though he'll be doing construction work.

Leslie Liberty of Shirley Road will work this summer and through the fall. A new addition to Leo's Beauty Salon this fall will be Carol Lombardi of 3 Everett Ave.

This summer her plans include working at King's and fun at Hampton Beach.

Entering training for nursing in the fall is Donna Long of 33 South Street, Westboro. She'll work in a hospital this summer.

Entering Worcester State this fall, Duncan MacLean, 16 Chase Terrace, can be seen this summer working at the Wonder Market. This summer, David MacLeod, 44 Shady Lane Avenue, will be working at Moore's Surveying Company, followed by a busy year at Worcester State College.

Practicing hair-dos on her friends Marjorie Maurello, St. James Road, plans to study hairdressing at Leo's in the fall. After working this summer, Philip McAtee, Main Street, is planning to visit far distant lands in the Navy.

The residence of Helen McKuzes, 877 Main Street, will be a busy place this summer with Helen entering Framingham State Teacher's College in the fall. Everybody's interested in what Dolores Means, 33 Sprude Street, will be doing after working at John Hancock this summer.

Working(?) on the construction of aircraft this summer, Charles Michalak, 82 North Quinsigamond Ave. will continue his work at Wentworth Aircraft Maintenance this fall. After spending a wonderful time at the Cape this summer, Claudia Michalak, 8 Philips Avenue, plans to become a secretary in the fall.

Janice Michalak, 26 Sterling St., is planning to work through the summer and fall at Massachusetts Protective Association. The big question is what Douglas Milbury, 49 Main Circle, will be doing this summer before he enters Syracuse University in the fall.

Babysitting at the Cape this summer, Deborah Mitchell, 10 South Street, will resign in the fall to a less hectic schedule at Skidmore. Working at Dairy Queen this summer, Maureen Molloy, 19 Richard Avenue, plans to enter nursing at Burbank in Fitchburg.

Filling the gas tanks this summer, David Morel, 136 Old Mill Road, plans to enter Wentworth Institute of Technology. After being a wonderful counselor at Camp Fire Girls this summer, Barbara Morton, 25 Knowlton Avenue, plans to enter Carleton College, Minnesota, this fall.

John Mundy, 6 Orchard Road, plans to work this summer before entering Worcester Junior College in the fall. All that we know about James O'Connor, 9 Paul View Lane, is that he is going to work, work, work!

Judith O'Connor, 50 Old Mill Road, is planning to become a beachcomber at the Cape this summer before entering nursing at Leominster Hospital. Working as a secretary this summer and fall, Korin Olson, 3 Westview Avenue, we hope, will find some time to loaf.

Entering Houghton College in New York this fall, Stephen Ottoson, 11 Monroe Street, plans to loaf and go to summer school for three weeks. Please, Steve, no loafing in school!

Stephen Paradis, Walnut St., will spend his summer working as a gardener, before he enters Wentworth Institute. Starting off life right is James Pelligrino, 9 Acorn St., who's working all this summer and next year too.

After working all summer long, George Perkins, Maple Ave., will enter the University of Mass. Although Marianne Perreault, 481 W. Main St., is undecided as to what to do this summer, she knows that Elmira College is where she'll go this fall.

Along with a long engagement with Uncle Sam the agenda for Edward Pescare, 20 Villa Rd., include a possible job, before he enters the Army. Lee Pine, 7 Say Brook Rd., will be working this summer in preparation for Worcester Jr. in the fall.

Taking it easy is the ticket for Robert Pine, 7 Say Brook Rd., but he won't be loafing this fall in the Marines. Richard Panto, 52 Harriet Ave., plans to get his service obligation over, so that he'll be free to attend college this fall.

Wentworth Jr. College is the ultimate destination of Philip Possen, 268 N. Quinsigamond Ave., but he'll be working most of the summer at Donovan's. Baseball is the choice of John Powers, 17 Manor Rd., for the future, but it seems he'll be helping out at St. Vincent's Hospital.

Larry Price, 11 Daniel Rd., has no definite plans for the summer, but he'll go to Clark with a scholarship this autumn.

A cruise with the navy is at the top of the list of summer plans for David Russell, 19 Colton Lane, and if he returns in time, college is his goal for next year. Secretarial work constitutes the future plans of Kathleen Roberts, 27 Williard Ave. Robert Rossi, 49 So. Quinsigamond Ave., will be seen working at a local grill this summer, while next year's plans remain indefinite.

Phyllis Record, 709 South Street, has summer plans centering on wedding bells in June. Employing her music scholarship is the basis for Marilyn Reiman, 41 Wesleyan Street. Working in general is to be the summer pastime of Diane Rondeau, 135 Cullenade Drive, Marlborough, and she will be entering Framingham State Teachers' College in the fall.

Linda Rustay, of North Street, has varied plans for the summer including reading, writing, relaxing, going to the Cape, and working if the opportunity arises. Mount Holyoke is her destination in the fall. William Rivernider, 8 Highland Street, will be working this summer and joining the Navy next year.

Richard Riding, Edgewood Road, can be found in Maine, visiting this summer and attending the University of Maine in the fall. New Hampshire or the Cape is where you find Gay Rogers, 53 Crescent Street, as the summer progresses, and college is her destination next year. Janet Ray, 5 Dalphen Street, will work, work, work, both this summer and next fall.

The Cape will be the background for the work of Margaret Record, 709 South Street. The summer will find Patricia Sacco, 9 View Street, working at the Wonder Market. She will major in math at Worcester State College next fall. Betty Sampson, Old Mill Road, will be working this summer and will enter Salter's in the fall. Spag's is where you'll find David Sampson, 100 Old Mill Road. Next year Trade High School is his destination. Patricia Santora, 47 Worthington Avenue, will be working this summer and will enter Salter's next fall.

The University of Florida is next year's destination for Ronald Savastano, 40 Plainfield Avenue, while the summer will find him working for Moore's Surveying Co. Louis Schaedler, 34 School Street, will vacation in Pennsylvania for two weeks and spend the remainder of the summer working toward his entrance to Lowell Tech.

Summer school and part time work at King's Super Market are the summer plans for Robert Schipp, 10 Canna Drive, and it will be Worcester Junior for him next year. Frederick Scott, 39 Wesleyan Street, will be found at Y.M.C.A. Camp Morgan this summer and perhaps at Forestry School next fall.

Pat Blackett, 44 Old Mill Rd., intends to pass the summer months working for the Massachusetts Protective Agency and should continue her work in that field well into the future. The future is more changing for Clare Packard, 335 Lake St., as she will be working during the summer months at Jensen's Restaurant and will become a student at either Worcester Jr. or at Worcester State in the Fall.

It's Worcester Tech next year for Burton Shair, 378 South Quinsigamond Avenue, and during the summer he will be working at Orlando's. Linda Sideckas, 47 North Quinsigamond Avenue, will be "having a blast" at the Cape this summer and head for a "settling down" session at Becker Junior in the fall.

In the future it will be work and more work for Donna Sklut, 218 Main Street, and Linda Small of 21 South Street will alternate between the Cape and Julio's this summer and head for U. Mass. next fall.

Ann Stearns, 15 Raymond Avenue, will possibly work this summer but is definitely headed for Westfield State College in the fall. The Army will occupy Arthur Sullivan, 30 Wesleyan Street, for six months, then he'll head for Worcester Junior.

Clifford Swenson, 70 North Quinsigamond Avenue, will be joining Ron Savastano at Moore's Surveying Company this summer and will attend Franklin Institute next year. It will be Worcester Junior for Patricia Tarby, 501 Oak Street, next fall but this summer not definite yet. Along with many others in the senior class, Bonnie Taylor, 36 Fairview, will be at the Cape this summer; she will enter Fitchburg State College in the fall. Peter Tomaiolo, 423 Main Street, can be found either working (?) or at the golf course this summer and at St. Anselm's next year.

Joyce Tozeski, 50 Harrington Avenue, "may work" this summer but will spend most of her time at the beach, saving the work for the fall. State Mutual is where you'll find Nancy Trotta, 218 Holden Street, both this summer and next year. Florida will be Katherine Turnan's abode for the summer, while next year she will attend the College of Our Lady of the Elms. Another Cape enthusiast is Mary Etta Turo, 26 Elm Street, who will enter Becker Junior next year.

Philip Vinton, of Saturn Drive, plans on the Cape, then off to Worcester Junior. With all these graduates going to the Cape accidents are bound to happen, great training for Joanne Wade, 23 Glen Terrace, she'll be ready for the Herry Heywood Hospital, Gardner.

Susan Walsh, 32 North Street after a summer job plans further education at Bay Path Junior College. Check your change when in the Wonder Market, Sandra Whites, 62 Boylston Circle will be one of the cashiers, later she's off for Becker Junior.

Orlando's too will have SHS graduates including William Whitney, 224 Holden Street later he'll be at Clark. As indefinite as usual was Daniel Wivagg, 15 Ferncroft Road on his summer plans but in the fall it's the University of Massachusetts

Hazel Wood, 9 Hatura Street after graduation is off to the Cape, then M.P.A., then wedding bells. Nancy Heitin, 140 Holman Street, will be going to Northeastern University in the fall, but as for the summer she will just "relax".

The Glee Club's big bass Stanley Wood, 298 Oak Street, plans on working at Northeast Fabricators, Inc., then back to music at B. U. A new role for William Woodruff, 180 Grafton Street, will be counsellor at Bob Cousy Summer Camp, then back to the grind at Nichols College.

Progressive Shippers Co-operative Association, a mouthful to say of spell, will be Beverly Wyman's Employer for the summer and next year.

Work is first on the list of summer plans for Paul Powers of Lake Ave. In the Fall you'll find Paul at Worcester Jr., along with many other SHS grads. Work is also the favorite summer pastime for Pat Turo, 22 Frances Ave., who will leave her summer job to become a student at Salter's.

Barbra Dufresne, 139 Prospect St., is planning to spend an "interesting" time at the Cape; and later she will fall into a busy schedule at Framingham State. Diane Dumper, 277 Maple Ave., now working at Norwood, plans to enter the U. of Mass.

Sandra Pearson, 16 Hapgood Way, is going on to the happy world of earning money at a regular job.

The future for George Porter of 47 Fairlawn Ave., also holds the possibility of a successful business career.

Busy, busy, busy is Virginia Pruneau, 1 Beaver Drive, who'll be working this year and next at the State Mutual. Hairdressing at Leo's is what the future holds for Dianne Prunier, 43 Shirley Rd., although she'll be a temporary beachcomber this summer. After he returns from Pennsylvania this summer, Frank Putnam, 330 Maple Ave., will be going to Wentworth Institute in Boston. Representing SHS at Harvard will be Stephen Packard, 78 North Street, who's working-of all places at-Greenland this summer.

Frances Di Terlizzi, 1 Johnson St., will be found racing between the Cape and Mattero's Bakery during the Summer and will study Medical Technology at Carnegie Institute next Fall. Katherine Skavis, 20 Oakland Ave., will take up her new job with the Mollazzi Insurance Company in the Fall.

Robert Garabedian, 23 Brookway Drive, will be working for the town of Shrewsbury during the coming months and will possibly become a student at Worcester Junior.

David Garvey, Eaton Place, is planning to enter Boston University after working though the Summer.

Seniors Climb

'Stairway to the Stars'

1-2-3- Glide--- or was it 1-2-3- Slide? In all seriousness, last Friday night was a lovely dream come to life- the Senior Ball. Going along with the theme, Stairway to the Stars, the cafeteria never looked quite so heavenly as Mr. Narducci and his fabulous band played for the last time for the Class of '61. To a casual observer it was a lovely dance with lilting music, happy talk, and starry-eyed couples, but this dance surely will hold, above any other dance, a certain lovely memory to the Seniors to be remembered in the future.

The success of the dance was largely due to the careful planning of Susan Adams and Gerald Bernard, co-chairmen of the dance, but without the tremendous support of the Senior Class the dance surely would have been "Stairway to Disappointment."

Then came that very special time- the crowning of the queen. After much marching and choosing, the judges came to a final decision. Thus Dianne Greenwood, last year's Junior Prom Queen, crowned Virginia Pruneau as queen of the Ball. Comprising the court were Deborah Mitchell, Bonnie Taylor, Darlyn Boulay, and Linda Carlo. Shortly after the crowning, couples began to leave, but the pleasant memories of their four years of high school will never escape from their minds.

WHO is TOBIAS?

Still guessing? "It's Arks!" "No--Marianne!"--"I think it's --!" Rumors have been flying high and wide about the real identity of our student "in disguise" since last Monday. Actually, this has been going on all year, but Graduation and the end of another school year has intensified it-- "Who is Tobias Howe???" The first Tobias Howe column appeared four years ago with Jerry Dyer as Scribe 1. For two years Karen Lingaitis had 'em mystified--and finally Scribe 3-- But let's see first who the SHS students think Tobias is----

"They've kept it well concealed- I don't know--" Pat Carter is among those completely baffled. Ann Stearns, Don Englund, Charlie Michalak, and Judy O'Connor "don't know at all", but Marsha Harrington has it narrowed down--she thinks Tobias is a boy! Sue Blanchard makes no bones about it - "Ohh- how would I know???" Indeed Sue--Lynda Carlo has an original idea- Tobias is "some Kook-" But then, Mr. Bannon has been given the slip by our elusive student reporter!

Some of our students aren't so vague. Janice Michalak, Janice MacLeod, and Sue Jacobs are "sure" Tobias is Marianne Perreault. But then- Marianne says it's "Arks"!!

"It is--it's Bob Arakelian" say Ellen Breen, Paula Mooney, Linda Rustay (is our Editor of the past year right??), Dan Wivagg, Pammy Grosso, Steve Tosi and a host of others--including Mr. Nichol森. But Doug Milbury thinks it's Linda Rustay--and Joanne Flynn says Ellen Breen--and Sue Holmquist and Mr.

Lekas say Paula Mooney--- - --- Confusing----???????????

GIRLS' STATE

On June 13, girls from Massachusetts, who have been chosen to represent various American legion Auxiliary posts, will arrive at Bridgewater State College in Bridgewater, Mass. for a whole week, returning home on June 20.

The purpose of Girls State is to familiarize the selected girls with the running of government. The girls will break up into towns, cities, and countries, and elect representatives, senators, a governor, and other officials.

A daily program is planned, in addition to the highlights of the week—a ball and a talent show.

Points are given for each activity a girl participates in, whether it be swimming, tennis, chorus, newspaper work, etc. The governor and girls with the most points go on to Girls National.

SHS has two delegates readying themselves for that week. They are Frances Savage, and Emilee Pappazisis.

Girls Staters--Drani Savage and Emilee Pappazisis

BOYS' STATE

For the week of June 23 to July 1, three SHS students, Stephen Tosi, Brian Smith, and John Cormier will attend Boys State at the University of Massachusetts.

The purpose of Boys State is similar to Girls State, to familiarize the selected boys with the running of government.

Emilee Pappazisis

SHS State Representatives

CHAMPION DEBATERS FLY TO PITTSBURGH

Once again the sky will be frequented with Shrewsbury High champion debaters. This June 18th Steve Packard and Danny Wivagg, accompanied by Miss Rowe, will fly to Pittsburgh in hopes of capturing the National High School Debate Championship. Extensive competition in the forensics will last until June 23. SHS earnestly gives its full support to Steve and Dan (and hopes for a victory!)

Steve Tosi Awarded Harvard Prize Book

Awards, scholarships, prizes! During the year many outstanding students of Shrewsbury High have received recognition for their accomplishments. Recently, the Harvard Prize Book was awarded to Steve Tosi, by the Harvard Club of Worcester. This organization, formed primarily to "further the good of Harvard College," makes this annual award to the most notable member of the Junior Class. The prize is given to the student who, throughout his school life, has shown evidence of exceptional scholarship, character, and leadership. Shrewsbury High congratulates Steve for his success in winning a much coveted award.

Television and Radio Program and Commercial Announcing

The radio and television announcer is defined by one of the major networks as one who "announces news, commercial copy, musical continuity, station identification, and acts as a master of ceremonies on occasion." This all-embracing statement of an announcer's duties includes a variety of special activities that require different degrees of ability and talent.

Generally, the field of radio and television announcing is divided into two categories, program announcing and commercial announcing. Commercial announcing refers to activities directly connected with the presentation as advertising messages heard over the air. Program announcing refer to all other radio and television activities connected with the broadcasting of the program.

Announcers are staff employees under contract or attached to the staff of a broadcasting station. Some program announcers who have built up a following may work on as free-lances, making their own bookings, with a talent agency. Many commercial announcers are also free-lances, making their own business contacts or obtaining jobs through a talent agency.

Many characteristics go into the makeup of a good radio and television announcer. One must have a good speaking voice, good diction, pleasing appearance, and a sincere personality. Also important traits of an announcer are good health, self assurance, and versatility.

The announcer comes into contact with producers, directors, writers, actors and creative people who work together purposefully for an end result-the completed broadcast, which produces a general feeling of satisfaction

Cheering Squad

Holds Try outs

Those trying out for the cheering squad were justifiably anxious as they were divided into groups of three. Although nervousness was obvious, both freshmen and sophomore girls should be commended on the amazing pep, vigor, and ability which they showed. The juniors, as the "old timers," also displayed that spontaneous enthusiasm needed to qualify for the finals. Eager and excited expressions were on the faces of the girls who cheered their hearts out with "Shrewsbury Locomotive," "With a Vivo," and "Gotta R-I." The judges had a difficult task envied by none in choosing the future cheerleaders as the finals brought stiff competition. The tense mood thickened as the sophomore girls were asked to cheer again!-as juniors sat by nervously awaiting the decision (but trying to appear as calm as possible). The decision finally made, Pam Grosso, captain of the SHS cheering squad, announced the cheerleaders for the year 1961-1962. Through tears were seen both the happy and sad, all of those girls who tried out deserve a heartfelt thank-you for a job well done. As an eye witness to that afternoon session in the SHS gym said, "That's stiff competition, but the spirit and never-ending drive is a wonderful sight to be seen."

Art Department

One area in the SHS corridors where it is easy to be detained is the colorful art showcase corner. It never fails to display unusual work which catch the eye-or the wondering student. But the showcase gives only a hint of the talent and originality found in our Art Department, headed by Mr. Bowker.

As either Miss Molinari or Miss Nichols (our two art teachers) would testify, some students seem to naturally gravitate to the informal and creative atmosphere of the art rooms. Here, these budding young artists enthusiastically undertake projects from wide and varied fields depending upon the course chosen. Crafts includes enameling, ceramics, paper mache', hooked rugs, mosaics, and sculpturing. Art is concerned with drawing and painting.

From each class, there are a few "regulars" who haunt the art rooms quite frequently. The outstanding Senior Artists include: Sue Jacobs, Sandy Carlson, Marianne Perrault, and Al Valuinias. Some of our talented Juniors are Sue Holmquist, Carolyn Waterhouse, Helen Leone, and Eileen Ceffalo. The bohemian sophs. include: Donna Sue Allen, Karen Cumming, Richard Empie, and Valeda Scherjee.

The neat and well-stocked art rooms are decorated with popular projects such as: charcoal drawings, ceramics and sculptured pieces. The equipment is up to date and efficient--especially the ceramic kilns--which incidently would not bake good pizzas.

This being senior issue, it is only fitting to mention some of the outstanding Sr. works of art. One highly praised original fashion drawing was done by Sandy Carlson. Sue Jacobs was mentioned for her unusual abstract paintings. Some of the persevering and talented Ceramists include: Clare Packard, Bonnie Taylor, and Kathy Turner.

All in all the Art Department offers variety--from nature and outdoor sketching to music impressions--and cultural growth--tentative trips to the Boston and Worcester Art Museums--to the talented and enthusiastic Art student at SHS.

Elizabeth Marold works in the Art Room.

SPRING SPORTS

SHS athletes have been kept on their toes—literally?—by a variety of spring sports. Completing another successful season, the Spring Track Team has an over-all record of six victories in eight meets. In the individual events a number of boys deserve special recognition as "stars" in their own right. Concentrating on the high jump, Roy Chesley recently cleared a height of six feet two inches in a meet at Lake Park. Not to be outdone was George Perkins, with a broad jump of twenty feet five inches, while Ron Dumbrowski has a shot putt record of about thirty-eight feet. Kenny Perry holds the SHS record for the discus throw with a heave of 127 feet.

In the running events the team also has a good showing. Tony Francese holds the "top" position in both the hundred yard dash (10.2 seconds) and the 440 yard dash (56 seconds). In the 220 yard dash George Perkins and Phil Posson are rated as the best.

Arnold Cary is at the top of the heap in the 880 yard dash. In the mile, the best SHS runner is George Flynn, who races a speedy 4 minutes 56 seconds.

The rest of the town has also seen a lot of sports activity in the form of the Eastern Sprints held at Lake Quinsigamond on May 20. In overall competition Navy swept the field followed by Cornell and M.I.T.

One week later the New England School Boy Regatta was held on the Lake with powerful Kent School surging to first place in the overall competition. In the singles division Harry Garvey of SHS placed third after only four weeks of practice.

With graduation and the end of another season, SHS students may look back on a record of athletic accomplishments with a great sense of pride.

- Convicts who have been boxing in prelims at the Miami Beach Auditorium will no longer be allowed to do so. L. W. Griffith, the director of the state's road camps, says he does not want his prisoners exposed to boxing's evil influences.
- Doc Kearns, manager of Amos Moore, was asked recently what people called Moore's spar mate, Greatest Crawford, for short. "Great," said Kearns.

GUIDANCE NEWS

Attention seniors--if college is coming closer and your pocket-book becoming emptier, Massachusetts will come to the rescue. The state legislature has passed several laws establishing organizations whose sole purpose is to aid the high school senior with his college expenses.

One such organization is the Massachusetts Scholarship Foundation which gives awards ranging from $200 - $800 to help with the expenses of the freshman year in college. To be eligible for the awards given by this organization a senior must: (1) be a resident of Massachusetts, and accepted by a recognized institution of higher education in Massachusetts, (2) have stood well scholastically in his high school graduating class, (3) be in need of financial assistance, which will not be forthcoming in significant amounts from other scholarship funds, (4) give evidence of seriousness of purpose.

Another such organization is the Board of Educational Assistance, which grants awards toward tuition only. The Board has recommended that the legislature appropriate $300,000 for this year, so there is a good chance for a senior to receive a full tuition award. Qualifications are the same as the ones previously mentioned. Applications and further information may be secured at the Guidance Suite.

Just a note - once into college, students may obtain bank loans up to $500 a year from the Higher Education Loan Plan, an organization established under a special act of the legislature. The federal government has authorized the National Defense Student Loan Program designed to aid the college student.

These organizations and programs signify that the government - both state and federal - is lending a helping hand to its students.

SUMMER BOOKSHELF

Looking for something extra to do during those long, hot summer months? Here's a list of summer reading with at least one book to appeal to the tastes of enthusiastic bibliophiles:

Ethan Frome; Edith Wharton

A gripping, symbolic story of human conflict in a small New England town, climaxed by an incredible tragedy.

The Old Man and the Sea; Ernest

Hemingway

A prize-winning narrative of an old man's struggle and final triumph over the sea.

Rabbit; Sinclair Lewis

A sharply satiric portrait of a modern businessman, George F. Babbitt.

One Man's Meat; E.B. White

A collection of witty informal essays, peppered with humorous references to the author's experience as a farmer.

Conscience of a Conservative;

Barry Goldwater

An informative and refreshingly frank evaluation of the wave of conservatism invading the American political scene.

The Red Badge of Courage; Stephen

Crane

A psychological probe of a young Civil War recruit haunted by the fear of death.

MUSIC MAKERS

Climaxing the year's efforts for the Shrewsbury music students was the annual supper of the Shrewsbury Music Association, held in the cafeteria in the form of a Smorgasbord.

After the 450 guests had feasted sumptuously, a short business meeting of the association was held. The high-light was the presentation of Awards to the most valuable all-around member and the most valuable player in each group. The following students were honored:

Marilyn Reiman, High School Band-both awards; High School Orchestra-Most valuable player, Richard Riding; Most valuable all-around member-John Wall; Glee Club-Both awards, Stanley Wood.

Two special awards given to the pianists, Donna Leach and Judy Wheeler.

Stanley Wood and Marilyn Reiman were awarded scholarships of $150 each to further their music education.

The business meeting over, the group moved to the auditorium where they enjoyed a program of pure entertainment by the music teachers, friends and parents of the students.

Industrial Art'ers Win Honors

Throughout the school year many individuals and organizations are honored with various awards and acclaim. But one group is rarely mentioned. Recently a group of boys from the Industrial Arts Department brought great honor to their school by bringing home thirteen awards as proof of their superb abilities and workmanship. The competition was held at Lexington High School with approximately sixty schools competing. The awards were Massachusetts Industrial Education Society Certificates of Merit for Outstanding Craftsmanship. Some boys even succeeded in earning two awards.

Tuesday evening, June 6, the department sponsored a display of the winning projects representing the other Industrial Arts students. The display was well planned and presented. Certainly all those involved deserve our highest praise.

Hats off to the Industrial Arts Department, especially the following boys who won the awards:

SHS ESSAYISTS TOPS IN CONTEST

Interested in making a quick 60 dollars? All you have to do is submit a prize-winning essay to the Sixteenth Annual Service Clubs' Essay Contest next year. For expert advice contact Joanne Urban, who walked away with just that amount after she wrote the best essay from S.H.S. ( 10 dollars ) and took second place in the main awards ( 50 dollars ). If a 5 dollar prize also interests you, get in touch with the following honorable mention winners: Nancy Abodeely, Peter Angermann, Elaine Carlson, Karen Cumming, Richard Daggett, Ellen Hadidian, Marilyn Miller, Paula Mooney, Kathy Olson, and Linda Rustay. As this list testifies, good ol' S.H.S. came away with the largest number of winners ---11---the next highest number being 5 from Auburn. Auburn's Barbara Jacobsen took first prize ( that's 100 dollars plus 10 dollars for the best school essay, in case you're interested ).

All the schools in and surrounding Worcester are invited to participate in the Essay Contest, which is sponsored by such organizations as the Kiwanis Club, the Lions Clubs, and the Rotary Club, to name a few. One essay is chosen from each school to represent it in the main awards, plus the honorable mention winners. These students are invited to the Awards Luncheon held at the Hotel Sheraton-Bancroft, this year on May 23.

Biology Blast Off

10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1-0 BLAST OFF! At 8:36 A.M. Sunday morning, June 11, 1961, members of the Biology Club left the grounds of SHS and began to orbit their way to the Cape for a bit of beachcombing.

Miss Litz, advisor of the group, drove, along with two other volunteers to Elaine Carlson's summer home in Rexham Massachusetts. The day, in space language, was certainly "out of this world." Not a piece of ground was left untouched by the combers. Among the findings were starfish, seaweed, sting rays, jellyfish, and????????..... Traces of the trip's effect are evident--Paula Steinberg's sunburnt legs...Suzanne Ek's blushing face (what's this?????).....Wayne Mc Owen's "hungry look"(obviously due to the unedibility of jellyfish!)....and the addition of a number of strange new specimens to the Biology Lab. The biggest surprise of all was in this crazy orbit the Biology Club met no Russians! (Would Gordon Knight in sun glasses and riding pants suffice?????????)

G.E. HOSTS SHS JUNIORS

It's seven o'clock and the familiar, unwanted ring of the alarm breaks into someone's peaceful slumber. Only now the Junior Class of SHS has a new respect for that "nasty little clock."

Sponsored by the Science and History departments, students have had the opportunity to inspect first hand the manner in which their "instruments of torture" were assembled and produced. The Telecron Division of General Electric was visited by these students and has revealed to them the step by step process of mass production.

Valuable to both the Science and Social Study areas, these trips offered the student direct visual knowledge. First welcomed by the director of the Worcester Telecron Division, the groups were given a short resumé of the company and then proceeded on a guided tour.

Lead by several company engineers the students toured every section of the factory. Each process was explained separately, while an overall view of the factory and its problems was presented quite simply.

The first of its kind for the Telecron Division, the trips proved to be another device in increasing student knowledge and broadening student visions.

A moral for the Juniors' G.E. trip—"Something ventured, plenty gained!" (clocks parts, anyone?)

NATIONAL HONOR

The annual spring installation of the National Honor Society was held in the school auditorium on June 1. The following ten juniors were inducted into the club: Charles Carlson, Elaine Carlson, Lorna Carlson, Richard Daggett, Jean Jewell, Helen Leone, Joyce Listewnik, Ellen Sears, Jeanne Tetrault, and Stephen Tosi. A reception was held after the installation for Mrs. Robert Goddard, who delivered an inspiring and entertaining speech. Here's hoping that the "eggheads" can survive what is expected of them!

Filene's Fashion Board

Chooses SHS Members

Filene's Fashion Board

What girl doesn't dream of becoming a fashion expert? Well, for six SHS students---Kathy Olson, Kathy O'Brien, Pam Stockman, Carol Luby, Linda Parmenter, and Janet Walker---this dream might become a reality on June 10 when Filene's Fashion Board selects its new members.

Hopes arose when Filene's sent out applications to high school girls in the Worcester area interested in becoming members of Filene's Fashion Board. Each girl interviewed was given a quick rundown of the activities of the past Board. From those interviewed the semi-finalists were chosen.

These semi-finalists attended the graduation of the past Board on June 10 and gave their own presentation, modeling their favorite outfits.

Although the results were not final at the time the Town Crier was assembled SHS stood a good chance of winning a place on the Board---there were more finalists from SHS than from any other school.

Women's Club Presents Scholarships

One of the most coveted scholarship awards is the annual Woman's Club's Scholarship, given each year to two outstanding seniors who excel both academically and in general activities. This year, scholarships of two hundred and fifty dollars were presented to Lynda Carlo and Arnold Carey.

The winners were selected by the scholarship committee of the Woman's Club in conjunction with Mr. Cook and Mr. Dorsey. From over one hundred candidates they selected those whom they believed best fit the requirements. Scholastic ability, leadership, and character are a few of the many considerations.

This year Lynda and Arnold were especially lucky. Generally the scholarships are one hundred and fifty dollars each, but the large number of applicants enabled the Woman's Club to raise each one by one hundred dollars.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

"Hello ladies and gentlemen of the scopovideo audience, this is Sandy Carlson, your news commentator, bringing you a full coverage of the biggest event ever to hit the nation!...while radios are blasting the news, telegraphs carrying it across the world, newspapers covering it in black headlines, and the American public speaking of it in controversial arguments from coast to coast, a certian individual is now at the White House, preparing to be on the air in a half hour. Yes, that's right, with us tonight is a political innovation, the first woman president of the United States! After two months of research our network has gathered an exclusive and shocking report, finally ready to be released to the public. We have prepared a program tonite which will disclose the full story behind Miss President's high school graduating class, each and every one of them. We bring it all to you live, from BUZZ."

"Backstage now are a couple of my staff who will report the result of their research, and waiting on the scene to carry the news in the United Tribune tomorrow are reporters Debbie Mitchell, Jean Lehane, and Joanne Wade of the editorial department, John Berg of "Dear John", his advice to the lovelorn column, Diane Rondeau of the gossip column, Tales to Tattle By, Barb Dufresne and Helen McKuzes of the feature column, and news photographer Frank Anderson. The studio is packed with violets, Miss President's favorite flower, from the Benoit flower shop, and a large orchestra of world renowned musicians are anxiously awaiting their cue- Arnold Cary, Dick Pinto, Marilyn Reiman, Dick Riding, and Ginny Pruneau. Ready to sing "Everywhere You Go, I Go Too," a hit song by Phyllis Beaudry and Pete Tomaiolo, is that famous vocalist, Donna Long, accompanied by Diane Hubbard. Unfortunately, Miss Judy Prior could not appear tonite, for she has gone West to try her luck. Standing by also, waiting to catch a peek at the new President, are fashion experts Marianne Perault and Judy Falling, heads of a nationwide Teen Fashion Board, and Josephine Catino, who, as you know, runs Catino's Apparel for the Under-Sized Miss, and her staff of Mary Collamore, Andy Kallio, Pinky Carlson, Bev Wyman, Pat Foley, and Judy Campaniello. Miss President most likely will set the pace in clothing and hair style, and will be copied by millions of American women, so with us also, from Maurello's House of Hair, are stylists Marge Maurello, Pam Grosso, Sue Johnson, Judy Bourbeau, Diane Prunier (expert in bleaches) and Carol Lombardi. Chosen to paint the first oil portrait of the President is artist Sue Jacobs, brush and easel in hand, and standing by thier typewriters, recording tonite's events, are staff secretaries Betty Sampson, Gerry Ryan, Donna Sklut, Dolly Means, Jan Michalak, Judy O'Connor, Charlotte Aubain, Darlyn Bouley, Doris Broghesani, Linda Sidekas, and Mary Etta Turo, headed by Pat Santora, Secretary of the Year. To prevent any mishaps, the New York Police Force is standing by outside under the direction of Sargents Charlie Michalak and Skip Leone on their mounts, Lts. Gerry Amadon, Richard Blake, and Phil Posson guarding the doors, and Trooper Ray Budzyna. Miss President has her own personal force of body-guards with her now, old classmates turned musclemen. They are Gerry Burns, now holding the title of World's Strong Man, and prize-fighters Charlie Davis, Frannie Jourbert, Sonny LeBlanc, and Dick Dupre. Electrician Bill Kershaw is standing by in case of lighting difficulty, and Bob Schipp is on hand with refreshments, featurings Schipp's Mineral Soda Pop.

Now the scene is set, and all are anxiously awaiting the President's arrival. While we are waiting, however, let's hear from correspondent Pat Sacco who will fill us in on others making news today. Pat;...

Hi, out there. Many of you among the audience, especially those just mentioned, are all prominent members of the Presidents class, but unfortunately, not everyone could make it tonite. Bob Baxter is at Indianapolis, racing his sports car, and Paula Couture and Ginny Haskall are busy training new officers for the Woman's Marines. Roy Chesley, disc-jockey on United Bandstand is spinning records, and Kathy Skavis has just requested "Gerry, Oh, Gerry" by Sue Adams, "I Met My Love In The Sewer," by Larry Adams, and "I Want The Life of a Lover," by Steve Paradis. Of course, as you know, the old Shrewsbury All-Stars are playing the finals in Russia now, among the stars are Mike Costello, Seth Cummings, Mike Foley, George Perkins, and Lee Pine. Lois Basilissa was invited tonite, and although she couldn't make it, she sent a ten-foot chocolate White House for the President from her famous Candy Mansion. Pope John, John Brennan, that is, is in Rome with Sisters Pat Dauginikas and Joyce Jordan, and Frannie Diferlizzi, and Diane Pumper are in France as English teachers. Joe Flynn, by the way, is the famous jockey of the race horse, Runaway, and in Hollywood we found Sandra Degon, Donna Fuller, Lave Russell, and Diane Greenwood, starring in the movie, "Heaven Help Us", produced and directed by Judy Green and Marcia Harrington. Farther East, at Cape Canaveral, Florida, scientists Larry Price, Dan Wivagg, Stan Wood, and Burton Shair, aided by mathematica professor Barb Morton, have perfected a man in space astronaut which will carry five men to the moon- the volunteers are John Mundy, with his typewriter, Ed Pescara with his monkey, Bill Whitney and a P.O.D. book, Bill Horne with a stack of love letters, and Bill Vigneault with his color crayons. It should be an exciting trip. Standing by are substitutes Bob Bukowiecki, Bill Corrow, Ralph Gray, Bob Holland, and Cliff Swenson, probably the second group to be sent to the moon, or perhaps some other planet to start a new civilization.

That sums up my report, Sandy.

However, I believe Marianne is on hand to carry on from here.

Thank you, Pat. Well, I've traveled from coast to coast for two months, and this is what I found on the class of '61. Jean Bryant now runs a bowling establishment called "Bowl at Bryants," and she has employed as instructors Janet Lees, Bonnie Taylor, Joyce Tozeski, Pat Tarby, Kathy Turner, and Sandy Whites, all 300 bowlers. Marie Chevalier, on the other hand, is a driving instructor, giving lessons now to James Ballard, Ed Berberian, Dan Foley, and Butch Leofanti. Les Liberty and Dave Harris are her two grease monkeys, pardon me, mechanics, and she gets her cars washed at Flakeslee's Minute Wash. By the way, you know that Steve Packard is Dean of Harvard now, and he's written a book called "I Was A Teen-age Ham." He has his own private secretary, Pat Plackett. Speaking of books, some of the best sellers now are "How To Sail," by Dick Chaffin, "Around the World in 8 Days On a Bike," by John Delany, and "I was a Teen-age Mump," by Pat Turo. Incidentally, Pat's book is being put into film. On the literary Sue Blanchard now has her own column in "Playboy" magazine, edited by Joe Karavaciak, Bob Pine, Jim Pelligrino, and Joan Driscoll.

Miss President is flying over on McAtee Airlines, piloted by Louis Schaelder and Frank Putnam, with Nancy Corbett acting as stewardess. She will be taxied from the airport in a Gay Rogers Cadillac. By the way, many of you are probably wondering about the teaching staff at Shrewsbury High right now. Under the direction of Principal Robert Rossi, and disciplinarian David Morel, we have on the teaching staff Richard Auclair of ROTC, David MacLeod in charge of P.O.D. classes, Barbara Aijala of the English Department. Pat Biscaglia, head of Commercial, Leonard Ivel and John Potter as gym masters, Karen Carlson, Ann Stearns, and Pat Carter, the head librarians, Bill Davis in the Spanish Department, and pro tennis star Funny Garabedian as coach of the tennis team. Yes, a very reliable staff. As you know, all the school-books are published by Bobbsey Twins, Inc., jointly owned by Bev and Shirley Girard, John and Paul Powers, and Margaret and Phyllis Record. Wonder what happened to Dave Garvey? Well, he now owns Garvey's Flabless Reducing Salon for Men, and his instructors are Roger Nelson, George Graves, and Duncan MacLean. Phil Vinton and Bill Wiggins have opened a reducing salon for women, too. By the way, ladies, two famous novelists from the class of '61 have written guide books exclusively for you. Korin Olson is the author of, "How You Too Can Read a Book a Day," and Hazel Wood has just written "Modern Baby Care Through Phycological Guidance." That's about it, Sandy. Next on the list is a report on the President's cabinet. Vice-president Sue Walsh helped picked Bob Arakelian as Attorney General, once a famous lawyer, Ellen Breen as Secretary of the Interior and of Public Affairs, and Joanne Flynn as Secretary in Charge of Internal Disputes. Ann Cowan is the reliable Secretary of State, Doug Millbury Secretary of Defense, and Rosalind Glenn as Secretary of War. Nancy Trotto is Leader of the House of Representatives, and Maureen Molloy does well as Secretary of the Treasury. Fred Scott was put in charge of Natural Resources, and Bill Rivernider, yes, you guessed it- Commander-in-chief of the Navy's submarines. Al Valunas now sits calmly at the head seat in the United Nations, strengthening out power in foreign countries, as are Lynda Carlo, diplomat to Spain, Linda Small, joining Frannie in Paris as Representatives to France, and Ron Dombrowski Polish Ambassador. Seated in the House of Representatives are Carolyn Manson, Judy Graves, Kathy Frybeck, and Joan Jackles, and in the Senate, Richard Jewell, Steve Ottoson, and Sandy Pearson. It looks like the women have more than filled the President's cabinet, and are slowly taking over the country. Carol Cooper, for instance, runs Cooper's Colored Ice-Cream Bar, Clare Packard runs Jensen's, Nancy Heitin has her own used-car lot, and Linda Rustay is Director of Admissions at Mt. Holyoke. On the other hand, men are always making news- Bill Gibris has invented devices to enable men to live under the sea for months at a time, and Ron Savastano and Woody Woodruff, two famous golf-pros, have just dedicated 50,000 dollars to the Shrewsbury High Alumni Scholarship fund. David Hight has just invented a device to get milk to his customers through underground pipe-lines, and Gerry Bernard is in Germany printing American propaganda pamphlets, while James Laponese is running King's Supermarket and Robert Lees is managing Wonder Market. Elsa Silverberg, by the way, is traveling around the country, reciting poetry to small audiences, and James O'Connor has bought over Nortons and renamed it O'Connor's Manufactued Parts. Claudia Michalak, Kathleen Roberts, Janet Roy, and Judy Wood have combined their resources and come up with the book, "Senioritis is Non Curable." David Sampson? Well, last thing we heard, he is still looking for his Delilah. Wait, there's a commotion outside- I think the president has just arrived. Yes... and here she comes now! Quiet down please...

It's the ONE, the ONLY, the first woman president--Charlie Michalak!
Charlie Michalak? Yep, Charlie Michalak.

Hear Ye, Hear Ye,

I, Tobias Howe, hereby submit my last report to you as your Town Crier. Well, the Senior Ball is over and since graduation is upon us farewells are in order.

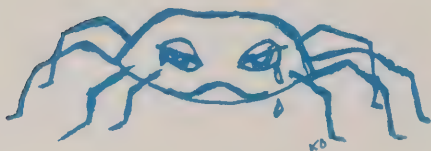

Since I am a Senior and farewells are in order, I say good-bye to all my readers and wish them all good fortune.

But most of all I thank Mr. Walsh for keeping the name of Tobias Howe a mystery, and I congratulate the new Tobias Howe, whoever he may be! May his secret remain sealed and his name a complete mystery.

I must say it has been a distinct pleasure. Good-bye--and good luck, Scribe IV. Respectfully submitted,

Seymour's Scroungings

Time - 12:30

Place - D corridor

Action - Signs of relief mingled with sadness echoed through the hall as the Seniors wound up their final year of High School.

Most confused was Seymour in his snug spider web in a corner of D-16. From this little haunt he saw all those big people running around like a bunch of nuts—a new kind of nut, a nice kind—the Senior brand. They screamed, they KISSED (which is the ultimate end in the eyes if Seymour) and they actually cleaned their desks. Now he was positive something was wrong. The day had begun just like any other day but what was happening now? Then he heard that word—good by, what good by? Seymour couldn't stand the thought of his seniors leaving him after four long years, could there ever be a class like this one...?

He remembered everything now — those clunky Town Crier reporters running around as if they had 8 legs. And they all asked so many questions. Someone had almost squished him as they plowed into Miss Iarussi's room. Seymour caught the words of Miss Iarussi "I shall miss the soothing effect of Billy Vigneault's snoring."

Next they rushed up the stairs and bombed into his peaceful abode. Mr. Lekas will miss the rotund, jovial-type face of Charlie Michalak. Next he heard Mr. Peden say "I will miss my 6th period Physic class the most! (did he really say That!)"

The rest of the teachers replied:

Mr. Jacobs; I'll miss not having a certain blond in my Trig classes

Mrs. Cellucci; I shall miss my 7th period vocabularian virtuoso—God bless 'em

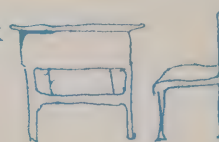

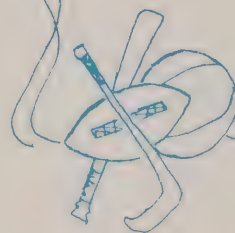

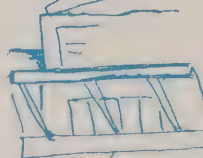

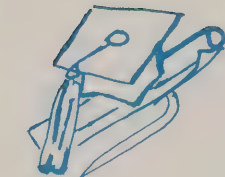

Mr. Nicholson; It is very difficult for me to analyze the feelings of the entire class. I do

The Colonial Speaks

I am a year book
I make no pretense of great literary worth
Oftimes I am belittled
And I will be the butt of later-life jokes
Because some things written on my pages
Will seem childish
When read again with wiser, older eyes
But, at this moment, they are part
Of a life we know and love
The unskilled phrases of youth may mar
my pages

But I know my strength
I know my place
I will be succeeded time and again
But I can never be replaced
Because in my leather clad arms
I hold all the memories of this small time
My task is to treasure that you may remember

Some day...when space ships whirl
Across the changed face of the world
I will be taken down from the shelf
The dust will be blown from my covers
And the curious eyes of eager childhood
Will scan my yellowed pages
For a beloved face
Nothing ever born of love really dies
And I was created with infinite care
By young men and women who love SHS
And all she stands for
Who believe all that happened here
Is worth remembering
Is worth recording
On my pages.....

feel a certain kinship with the graduating class since we were members of the "Center School Club". I shall miss them and I wish them success.

Mr. Zaido; I wish them the best of luck. P O D three, please in the future read more newspapers.

Mrs. Feldman; They were very enthusiastic about panels in class. (What were those panels about, Roy Chesley?)

So Seymour swooped back on his silken thread to his solitary sanctuary to sulk, in Senior-less sadness.

The "unsung hero" of the 1961 Colonial--its Editor-In-Chief, Judy Falling

FOREWORD

We have lived and we have learned in Shrewsbury. It is a modern town, the fastest growing in Worcester County. It is a long established town as evidenced by the memorials and the landmarks from our colonial period.

In these pages you will find the record of our schooling and activities of the past few years set forth against the pictorial presentation of our colonial background.

In Dedication

Mr. James J. Dorsey

Our future would not be as certain nor our past as fulfilled if we had not followed the instruction and advice of our own guidance counselor, Mr. Dorsey. From the beginning of our high school career, we have benefited from his assistance, in learning to be loyal citizens, able scholars, and confident leaders. With this thought in mind, we, the Class of 1961, dedicate our yearbook to Mr. James Dorsey.

In Dedication

Mr. Donald T. Nicholson

Teaching not only by instruction but also by example Mr. Nicholson has proved to be a true friend to the Class of 1961.

Never will we forget his sincere friendship for all of us and the unending assistance he gave so freely to every member of the class.

In appreciation, we, the Class of 1961, dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Donald T. Nicholson.

In Appreciation

We, the Class of 1961, have been very fortunate in having three class advisers whose understanding and help aided us in solving our problems.

To Miss Helen Parks, whose unfailing aid and encouragement has helped us over our trials and tribulations of the past three years, we owe a deep debt of gratitude.

Our Senior Year, with its numerous activities, would not have been as successful without the invaluable aid of Mr. Henry Sullivan.

Mrs. Mary Hastings, with her sincere understanding and unceasing aid, has made the numerous projects of the Class of 1961 a success and above all, a most enjoyable memory.

Therefore, the Class of 1961 wants to express their heartfelt appreciation to Miss Helen Parks, Mr. Henry Sullivan, and Mrs. Mary Hastings.

In Memoriam

Bruce George MacKenzie
May 7, 1943 - November 15, 1959

Last night in slumber's restful den, I dreamed
That you, dear friends, were with me once again
And I was glad. For when you smiled it seemed To me that other worlds or I had never been.
On sped the clock of worldly time, and I
Still lingered with you, wrapped in reverie.
But soon, too soon, the elements that tie
The bonds of dreams unloosed your world from me.
And you were left to travel on your way
Along the path that intertwines with dreams.
While I returned to face the dreary day
Of life, with its intricate plots and schemes
But when at last I gain eternal sleep,
A golden friendship we shall ever keep.

Life is Eternal

I am standing upon the seashore. A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength and I stand and watch her until at length she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come down to mingle with each other. Then some one at my side says: "There! She's gone."

Gone where? Gone from my sight — that is all. She is just as large in mast and hull and spar as she was when she left my side, and just as able to bear her load of living freight to the place of destination. Her diminished size is in me, not in her; and just at the moment when some one at my side says, "There! She's gone," there are other eyes watching her coming and other voices ready to take up the glad shout, "There she comes!"

Class History

What would have happened “if” the class of ’61 had not entered Center School as freshmen, “if” Beal High hadn’t become crowded, “if” the new Junior-Senior High hadn’t been built —

But we the class of ’61 hold these truths to be self evident and do hereby resign to accept them.

Ad aspera per difficultas — To the stars through difficulties could have been our motto in our Freshman year. Ambitious, meek, and unwise we entered the portals of our Freshman year at Center School. Dutifully we picked our class officers: Dick Riding, President; Sue Blanchard, Vice-President; Judy Viscardi, Treasurer; and Sue Adams, Secretary who proved worthy of these positions of leadership. We tried for the unusual and thus produced the unique in assemblies on hypnotism, fashion and tennis. The money we received we worked for by selling magazines. Included in our numerous activities were the publishing of The Center School Chronicle and the making of Junior Red Cross articles. Our Freshman social held on St. Valentines’ Day was the highlight of this, our first and difficult year.

“Work, wait, win” — we, the then wise Shopomores made our way to our second step still aiming at the stars. Chosen again to lead our class were Dick Riding, President; Sue Blanchard, Vice-President; Sue Adams, Secretary; and our new Treasurer, Doug Milbury. Elected to the Student Council were Ellen Breen, Ronnie Savastano, Pam Grosso, and Lynda Carlo. The transition from the old high school to the new Jr.-Sr. High School marked the end of old customs and the beginning of new habits. The beautiful and spacious auditorium and gym, the home economics rooms, the music and shop wings, and the numerous class rooms became our center of learning and instruction. Mike Todd thought he put on a production in Around the World in 80 Days. It was nothing compared to the Sophomore Hop — Around the World from 8-12 lead sucessfully by Maureen Molloy and Steve Packard. The Spanish corner, the freezing arctic, the Japanese cherry blossoms, and the mysterious jungle, “cornered the cafeteria” and produced an unusual and unique dance. Another year had come to a close, and already plans were being made for those glorious summer months.

Class History

Altiora peto — We sought the higher things and delved industriously into our junior year. Being old pros at casting our votes, we elected these capable leaders: Dick Riding, President; Maureen Molloy, Vice-President; Sue Blanchard, Secretary; and Marianne Perreault, Treasurer. The Student Council members were Ellen Breen, Ronnie Savastano, Lynda Carlo, Judy Falling, and Stan Wood. To raise money for our depleted treasury we sold stickers, ran cake sales, and conducted a memorable Sadie Hawkins Dance led by Sue Jacobs and Doug Milbury. On May 6, 1960, the annual Junior Prom, “Crystal Ball,” led by Linda Small and Dave Russell highlighted our Junior year. And to crown our night of nights, Dianne Greenwood was chosen queen. Looming before us on the horizon was OUR YEAR, which would be filled with hopes realized and dreams come true.

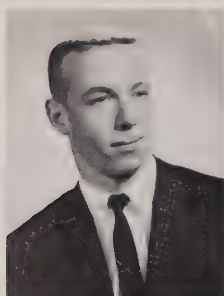

“They conquered who believed they could” — we as illustrious seniors once more elected capable officers. Doug Milbury, President; Maureen Molloy, Vice-President; Hazel Wood, Secretary; Marianne Perreault, Treasurer directed this, our most important year. Participating in the Student Council were Lynda Carlo, President; Ronnie Savastano, Vice-President; Ellen Breen, Secretary-Treasurer and Pam Grosso and Al Valiunas. To help finance our numerous Senior activities we sold book covers, chrysanthemus, shakers, Christmas cards, and sponsored various food sales. The Harvest Moon shone brightly over our annual Thanksgiving Day dance sponsored by the Senior class under the leadership of Nancy Trotta and Bob Arakelian. All this time the editor-in-chief of the COLONIAL, Judy Falling, busied herself compiling the facts of this memorable Senior year. Judy Prior, The Belle of the West, combined her talents with the entire cast to make the Senior musical a financial and social success. Following our Spring vacation, we found it hard to settle down to our routine affairs. The Senior Ball, Class Day, the Senior Banquet, and Graduation brought our high school days to an end. On Graduation night as we marched out as a class for the last time we realized we were not finished; we had only just begun.

National Honor Society

(* The Faculty Council.)

The purpose of the National Honor Society is to recognize students who have the qualities of character, scholarship, leadership, and service. At the end of the junior year, seven per cent of the class is elected to the society by the faculty and Faculty Council. In February of the senior year, eleven per cent of the remainder of the class is chosen for membership. Each member must be in the upper third of his class. Officers for this year were Algird Valiunas, President; Linda Rustay, Vice-President; Ann Cowan, Secretary; and Arnold Cary, Treasurer.

Service being one of the requirements for membership in the society, the members have many activities during the year. They send a CARE package overseas, give a Christmas basket to a needy family, decorate the war memorial on the Common on Memorial Day, and help with preparation for graduation.

Student Council

The Student Council is composed of fifteen members elected each year by their respective classes. Four Sophomores, five Juniors, and five Seniors and the Senior class President comprise the council. This year the Student Council was under the leadership of Lynda Carlo as President, Ronald Savastano as Vice-President, and Ellen Breen as Secretary-Treasurer.

The purpose of the Student Council is to promote the cause of student participation in the school and community, to experience students in the practices of democracy and leadership, and to provide experience in solving problems. The students are aided by Mr. Cooke and Mr. Zaido, advisor.

The highlights of this year's Student Council were supervising the class and Good Government Day elections, guiding activities for cheerleaders and Junior Red Cross. It supervised the operation of the Point System and Suggestion Box. It also selected and participated in awarding annual football trophy to Auburn High School as well as participating in area conventions held at Wachusett and North Brookfield High Schools. Other activities were supporting a candidate for office in the Central Division Massachusetts Association of Student Councils, selling brief-folios, selling candy for national convention, promoting faculty basketball game, sending delegate to the National Convention held in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and playing host to the State Convention.

National Forensic League

First row: J. Listewnik, R. Arakelian, D. Wivagg, Mr. Donald Nicholson, adviser, Miss Dorothy Churchill, adviser, Miss Elizabeth Rowe, adviser, C. Carlson, N. Abodeely, S. Lotuff. Second row: D. Toscano, K. Molloy, J. Jewell, J. Tetrault, E. Lally, S. Ek, H. De Prospro, J. Steinhilber, K. Saner, F. Savage, J. Bartlett, K. Olson, L. Carlson, C. Baxter. Third row: W. McOwen, G. Knight, S. Wood, L. Erikson, G. Deering, R. Matthews, S. Packard, R. Porter, P. Angermann, E. Carlson, P. Allison, N. Wilhelmy, G. Brown.

The National Forensic League concluded another year of active and enthusiastic forensic support under the guidance of its advisor, Miss Dorothy Churchill. The NFL member is a part of a national organization which stresses development and achievement, and participates in interscholastic debates and contests, student congresses, and service projects. Active interest in forensics is, of course, a prerequisite for NFL membership, but members must also display leadership, good character, and scholarship ability. Throughout New England, Shrewsbury was represented by these speakers, who placed high and worked not only for their club but for their school. The club officers for the year were: Dan Wivagg, President; Nancy Abodeely, Vice-President; Bob Arakelian, Treasurer; Joyce Listewnik, Corresponding Secretary; Jeanne Tetrault, Recording Secretary; and Charles Carlson, Publicity Manager.

The NFL highlighted the school year with its annual Banquet, the Richard Fipphen Contest, and the annual Daffodil Sale, and a series of other contests and sales. An NFL Scrapbook was started and Junior NFL meetings initiated for qualifying Freshman members. Operating the football concession was one of the large fundraising tasks the group undertook. With the year behind them, the members have completed another successful and notable year for the NFL annals.

Masque and Wig Society

First row: J. Poutney, K. Carlson, J. Steinhilber, S. Dowd, A. Lorusso, S. Bouthillier, K. Collins, J. Kenneway, C. Orrizzi, M. Miller, J. Johnson, J. MacLeod, N. Abodeely. Second row: S. Carlson, P. Grosso, J. Green, P. Beaudry, L. Small, D. Mitchell, S. Degon, E. Breen, L. Carlson, J. Bryant, D. Fuller, P. Carter, J. Prior. Third row: H. Wood, C. De Gaetano, D. Ferrante, P. Colangelo, B. Bard, E. Pappazisis, J. Hctor, C. Harrington, R. Mawdsley, D.

Greenwood, M. Perreault, P. Mooney, L. Parmenter, M. Zingarelli, L. Cronholm, J. Tetrault, K. Olson, J. Listewnik, E. Stearns, P. Steinberg. Fourth row: E. Marold, C. Lessard, L. Schaedler, W. Davis, P. Blanchard, R. Abair, B. Smith, R. Auclair, R. Englund, J. Spellman, W. Woodruff, H. Leone, A. Valiunas, D. MacLeod, A. Arnberg, D. MacLean, Mr. Patrick Walsh, director. Back row: F. Putnam, R. Savastano, R. Arakelian, C. Carlson, D. Russell.

The Masque and Wig Society has enjoyed a successful season under the direction of Mr. Patrick Walsh. Try-outs were held in October and a group of fifty was selected on the basis of their ability. At the close of school last year, we elected the following officers:

Sandra Degon .....	President
Lorna Carlson .....	Vice-President
Jean Bryant .....	Secretary
Ellen Breen .....	Treasurer

First on our list of events was a play presented for Memorial Day. In January, we presented a comedy, "Curtain Going Up." Following this successful event, we entered the Drama Festival. We decided to present "Hangs Over Thy Head." "The Book of Job," a play that proved enjoyable to everyone, was presented at the Richard Fipphen Contest.

To be sure, if the members of the Society were asked what interested them more than anything else, the resounding answer would be, "The countless rehearsals with their very comical and unexpected happenings, and the thrill of OPENING NIGHT!"

Town Crier

First row: J. Listewnik, P. Mooney, J. Wade, J. Lehane, R. Arakelian, S. Degon, Mr. Patrick Walsh, adviser, L. Rustay, D. Milbury, J. Tetrault, S. Jacobs. Second row: D. Mitchell, L. Carlo, E. Breen, D. Means, J. Prior, D. Hubbard, E. Pappazisis, J. Bartlett, K. Olson, J. Hactor, J.

MacLeod, E. Carlson, L. Parmenter, L. Basilissa. Third row: C. Waterhouse, S. Carlson, M. Molloy, L. Small, M. Perreault, D. Lytle, C. Carlson, A. Horne, J. Walker, N. Abodeely.

The Town Crier has undergone a remarkable change this year. It has become a regular bi-monthly high school newspaper, complete with on-the-spot news coverage and accurate photographs combined in an attractive journalistic layout. However, this change has not been accomplished without "growing pains." Frequent publication has required hard work from all the staff members. Although the paper was printed by the school, perfect layout and last minute stories were necessary. These informal work parties were attended by: Linda Rustay, Editor-in-Chief; Jeanne Tetrault, Associate Editor; Sandra Degon, Feature Editor; Jean Lehane, Business Manager; Susan Jacobs, Art Editor; Joanne Wade, News Editor; Joyce Listewnik, Copy Editor; Paula Mooney and Jan Bartlett, Photography Editors; Robert Arakelian, Sports Editor; and Donna Long, Typing Editor. The success of the Town Crier is largely the result of the competence of its advisor, Mr. Patrick Walsh, whose knowledge of journalistic writing and set-up has been invaluable.

Latin Club

First row: D. Leach, J. Sampson, J. Esip, S. Wood, E. Pappazisis, N. Aboeely, Mr. Henry Sullivan, adviser, M. Argento, C. Orizzi, H. De Prospro, J. Wheeler, H. Petrauskas.
Second row: J. Urban, M. Miller, K. Molloy, V. Bergman,

B. Bard, M. Le Blanc, N. Babin, S. Dowd, E. Hanson, S. White, J. Manna, M. Wilson, L. Widdis, D. J. Allen. Third row: D. MacLean, J. Chelauski, R. Kimball, R. Morton, G. Knight.

Acta Studentium

Friends, Romans, countrymen, lend me your ears! The year 1961 marks an important date in the minds of enthusiastic Latin students, for it is the first year that Shrewsbury High School has organized a Latin Club. The members are proud of its advisor, Mr. Henry A. Sullivan, who has contributed a great deal of time in getting the club going. Early in December Nancy Aboeely was elected president; Margaret Argento, vice-president; Claire Orrizzi, secretary; and June Kelleher, treasurer.

The first event of the club year was a talk given by Mrs. Britton on her slides taken in Europe. No Roman could have given a better description on the ruins and highlights of Italy! After the slides were shown, I'm sure that if our treasury held enough money we would have been willing to take the first boat to Ancient Rome.

What Latin student will ever forget the Roman St. Patrick Day's meeting? A highlight of the day was playing the game "Charades." A popular tune printed in Latin on a piece of paper was drawn by a student, and then had to be acted out by him.

In April the Worcester Art Museum was visited by some thirty-odd Latin students who were anxious to see the display of Roman sculpture and coins, the first of its kind in the United States. Among the portraits of conquerors, emperors, and tyrants were: Julius Caesar, Pompey the Great, and Emperor Caracalla. Everybody left with a better appreciation of Roman art.

The Latin Club closed its year with a festive Roman banquet.

So these were the activities of the Latin Club of 1961, and we hope that it has succeeded in carrying out its purpose — to create a better interest in the culture and language of the ancient Romans.

Roma ad infinitum!

French Club

First row: D. Dumper, N. Heitin, L. Small, S. Carlson, M. Perreault, A. McGuire, L. Rustay, Miss Joyce Power, adviser, P. Angermann, F. Di Terlizzi, S. Jacobs, A. Stearns. Second row: K. Olson, J. Listewnik, P. Stockman, H. Leone, B. Morton, K. Turnan, J. MacLeod, J. Steinhilber, J. Scott, H. Wood, K. Cumming, C. Beauregard, N. Trotta, S. Lotuff, S. Bouthillier, A. Bibeau. Third row: C. Strand, B. Teikari, A. Lorusso, R. Daggett, D. Percival, S. Tosi, W. McOwen, H. De Prospe, L. Erikson, D. Mitchell.

Under the guidance of our French teacher, Miss Joyce Power, the French Club was reorganized this year after a lapse of two years. To join the Club, a student must be studying his second or third year of the language. By engaging in after-class activities, the members of the French Club acquaint themselves with the lighter side of French life. During the monthly meetings, the different French classes may present plays and skits in French or report interesting aspects of French life. Added enjoyment was found in foreign correspondence, French songs, and parties, with a trip to the "Aux Beauchamps," a French restaurant in Boston, presenting a gala send off for senior members! Under the able leadership of Frances DiTerlizzi, President, Peter Angermann, Vice-President, Linda Rustay, Secretary, and Anne McGuire, Treasurer, 1960-1961 has been a rewarding and truly enjoyable year for the French Club.

Spanish Club

First row: L. Carlo, S. Smith, P. Grosso, Miss Pauline Howard, adviser, S. Walsh, P. Sacco, J. Falling. Second row: J. Christianson, B. Smith, J. Spellman, E. Marold, J.

Means, E. Carlson, N. Anderson, C. Jakubiak, B. Mader, P. Blanchard.

Language clubs have been the latest addition to Shrewsbury's extra-curricular activities. Miss Pauline Howard is the advisor to the Spanish Club, whose purpose it is to extend student interest beyond mere understanding of the Spanish language. The life, culture, and literature of Spanish-speaking peoples are presented to members.

Elected officers of the Club are as follows: Susan Walsh, President; Patricia Sacco, Vice-President; Pamela Grosso, Secretary; and Sandra Schmidt, Treasurer.

The Spanish Christmas party was the highlight of the activities of the newly-formed group which is looking forward to many more members and many more enjoyable meetings.

0 20 Club

First row: J. Prior, D. Fuller, M. Harrington, Mrs. Betty Flagg, adviser, P. Carter, A. Stearns, B. Morton, D. Dumper. Second row: P. Hayes, M. Russell, P. Steinberg, E. Stearns, J. Jewell, L. Taylor, J. Lees, E. Newmann, J. MacLeod, C.

Harrington, J. Manna, S. Riley. Third row: M. Richards, A. Foley, B. Anderson, S. Ek, L. Gravel, B. Lundgren, L. Carlson, C. Kilroy.

Shrewsbury High School students have been assisted in utilizing their library's modern facilities by the girls of the 0 20 Club. These girls have a thorough knowledge of library science which enables them to offer helpful suggestions to all — whether to inquisitive freshmen looking for good books to read, or to harried seniors seeking material for research papers.

Members of the 0 20 Club, who are recommended by their teachers, are expert in all phases of library work, from cataloguing books to collecting overdue fees from forgetful borrowers.

This year the group had the following leaders: Marcia Harrington, President; Donna Fuller, Vice-President; Patricia Carter, Secretary; Ann Stearns, Treasurer; Judith Prior, Ways and Means.

Under the direction of Mrs. Betty Flagg, the library aides have contributed immeasurable service to the school, gained valuable knowledge for themselves, and given others a greater appreciation of the library.

SHOMTY Club

First row: E. Drohan, J. Bryant, J. Casten, B. Sampson, J. Flynn, A. Cowan, M. Turo, D. Means, J. Prior, J. Bourbeau, E. Silverberg. Second row: Miss Mildred Shea, adviser, C. Cooper, J. Catino, D. Sklut, P. Santora, J. Michalak, G. Ryan, K. Roberts, D. Hubbard, D. Fuller, N. Corbett, P. Carter, S. Johnson. Between second and third rows, left: Mrs. Pauline Cohen, adviser, K. Skavis, L. Hill, B. Wyman, S. Tuttle. Between second and third rows, right: J. Colangelo, D. Ferrante, Miss Joanne H. Neveira, adviser, S. Baroni. Third row: V. Haskell, P. Locke, S. Whites, G. Vessella, J. Wagner, C. Aubain, D. Borghesani, M. Chevalier, D. Bouley, J. Wade, P. Blackett, P. Foley, L. Sideckas, S. Bonczek, M. Martinelli, M. McArdle. Fourth row: C. Reed, C. DiGaetano (not seen), M. Pellegrino, M. Carlson, M. Molinari, C. Luby, R. De Piro, J. Cartier, A. M. Martin, B. Pinto, B. Rocco, J. Burke, P. Hoyte, M. Wykes, P. Birtz, G. Johanson, A. Horne.

Students taking a Commercial Course are invited to membership in the Shomty Club. The unusual name is the result of the combination of three courses offered in the school — shorthand, office methods, and typing. The club familiarizes members with business procedures and gives them substantial knowledge of the skills required for success in an office.

This year's officers are: Ann Cowan, President; Joanne Flynn, Vice-President; Betty Sampson, Secretary; and Maryetta Turo, Treasurer.

Guest speakers, films, and discussion groups all contribute to the students' learning and enjoyment. Occasional field trips give Shomty members a first-hand look at the world they will enter after graduation.

Miss Mildred Shea, Mrs. Pauline Cohen and Miss Joanne Neveira are the advisers.

Science Club

First row: W. Whitney, L. Schaedler, J. Jordan, S. Degon, M. Molloy, L. Price, Mr. William Donovan, adviser, S. Packard, J. Tetrault, B. Morton, N. Trotta, H. Wood.
Second row: D. Wivagg, B. Shair, R. Daggett, J. Listwenik,

J. Jewell, L. Carlson, E. Carlson, K. Olson, S. Holmquist, R. Ryan, P. Angermann. Third row: S. Tosi, C. Swenson, R. Chaffin, R. Auclair, D. MacLean, C. Carlson.

A relatively new organization, the Science Club has expanded its second full year to provide for more participation by the scientifically-minded SHS students. Formally known as Sigma Eta Sigma, the Science Club is designed to promote and stimulate interest in the various aspects of science. The officers of the club this year were Steve Packard, President; Larry Price, Vice-President; Maureen Molloy, Treasurer; and Jeanne Tetrault, Secretary. They worked under the supervision of Mr. Donovan.

The highlight of the Science Club year was the annual Science Fair, held under a new system of judging and was as usual an interesting and important feature of the school year. The Club also sponsored a Magic Show and an assembly, Project Mercury, and viewed various films at the regularly scheduled meetings. Individual work was done by members in afternoon research groups, as well as in the Photography Club. In general, the Science Club devoted this past year to its aim and objectives of making science an integral and interesting part of our school curriculum.

Junior Red Cross

First row: S. Blanchard, C. Packard, B. Dufresne, J. Michalak, Mrs. Eleanore Gaucher, adviser, C. Burhoe, D. Long, B. Morton. Second row: J. Walker, H. Leone, C. Lessard, A. Francese, D. Garvey, S. Clark, W. Weyand, J. Beaudry, J. Dufresne, D. O'Connor, M. Pellegrino.

The purpose of the Junior Red Cross is to learn and serve by accepting responsibilities in community work and fund raising. The council participates in international programs, first aid training, water safety, and health activities.

This year's officers were as follows: Curt Burhoe, President; Janice Michalak, Vice President; Barbara Dufresne, Secretary; Helen Mckuzes, treasurer; and Mrs. Eleanore Gaucher, Faculty Adviser.

The Junior Red Cross had an outstanding re-enrollment in which the entire school co-operated. In addition to the money, the following items were collected for the Veteran's administration and other hospitals: checkerboards, chinese checkerboards, cribbage boards, and playing cards. All in all the Junior Red Cross had a most successful year.

Biology Club

First row: W. McOwen, E. Hanson, S. Ek, K. Molloy, P. Steinberg, E. Carlson, A. McGuire, Miss Lois Litz, adviser. Second row: G. Knight, N. McLeod, C. Orrizzi, J. Steinhilber, K. Cumming, J. Ryberg.

A newcomer to the many clubs in Shrewsbury High is the Biology Club. Unique in its organization, the Club not only holds formal meetings, but also informal gatherings where the members work on individual experiments in the field of biology. Formal meetings are held every other Wednesday with President Pauline Steinberg presiding. Assisting her are Vice-President, Elaine Carlson, Secretary-Treasurer, Kathleen Molloy, and faculty adviser, Miss Litz. A very interesting tour of the Foundation and a fascinating talk by a few members of the Club have been the fare for Club meetings.

However, the true purpose of the Club is fulfilled by the informal gatherings of the members to work on individual projects. It is here that the mind is stimulated to extend its knowledge beyond that of the classroom. Acceptance without question is not the rule of the Club. Members explore all possible solutions to a problem through experimentation and only then draw a conclusion. The effect of dyes, color, chemicals, and vitamins on plant growth have been investigated by several members. Other experiments undertaken by members in search of answers have included the dissection of Planaria and growth of brine shrimp. Advice and criticism are afforded by other members to aid the experimenter. These research sessions have proven to be of benefit as several members of the Club received recognition at the Science Fair.

In the future, the Biology Club hopes to expand the range of its programs and provide more time for members to experiment with projects; nevertheless, the Club has made a good start this year.

Chess Club

In January of this year, a Chess Club was formed under the direction of one of our mathematics teachers, Miss Louise Iarussi. This is the first year that Shrewsbury High School has had such a club.

The Club has been divided into two groups. The beginners group meets on Tuesdays and receives instruction as to the basic rules and moves of the game. Later, they learn various methods and eventually are able to develop a technique all their own. The other group consists of varsity players (those who contend they are skilled in the Royal Game.) These advanced members meet on Thursdays, play a minimum of two games a week, and record their results. A system has been devised for scoring players in accordance with their playing ability.

With the beginner and varsity groups combined, there are thirty-two members. All are avid players and are readily increasing their interest by participating in a game which tests mental capacity instead of physical ability.

The Chess Club has no officers and collects no dues, since business meetings are unnecessary in a club of this type. The Club has hopes of expanding; perhaps next year members can play interscholastically.

Glee Club

First row: D. Ferrante, V. Bergman, B. Lundgren, E. Mattress, J. Belanger, J. Burke, S. Degon, B. Mader, M. Bokis, S. Wood, Mr. Louis Vella, director. Second row: A. Horne, J. Mallett, F. Hubbard, J. Means, F. Savage, J. Sampson, J. Ryberg, G. Knight, J. Sullivan, B. Field, G. Sweet. Third row: L. Matthews, E. Silverberg, L. Parmenter, N. Anderson, B. Bard, B. Pinto, M. Molloy, B. Shair, R. Empie, L. Price, R. Chaffin. Fourth row: J. Wheeler, D. Leach, S. Ek, J. Green, Y. Russell, D. Hubbard, J. Prior, P. Ablondi, W. Woodruff, D. Russell, C. Carlson, W. Underwood.

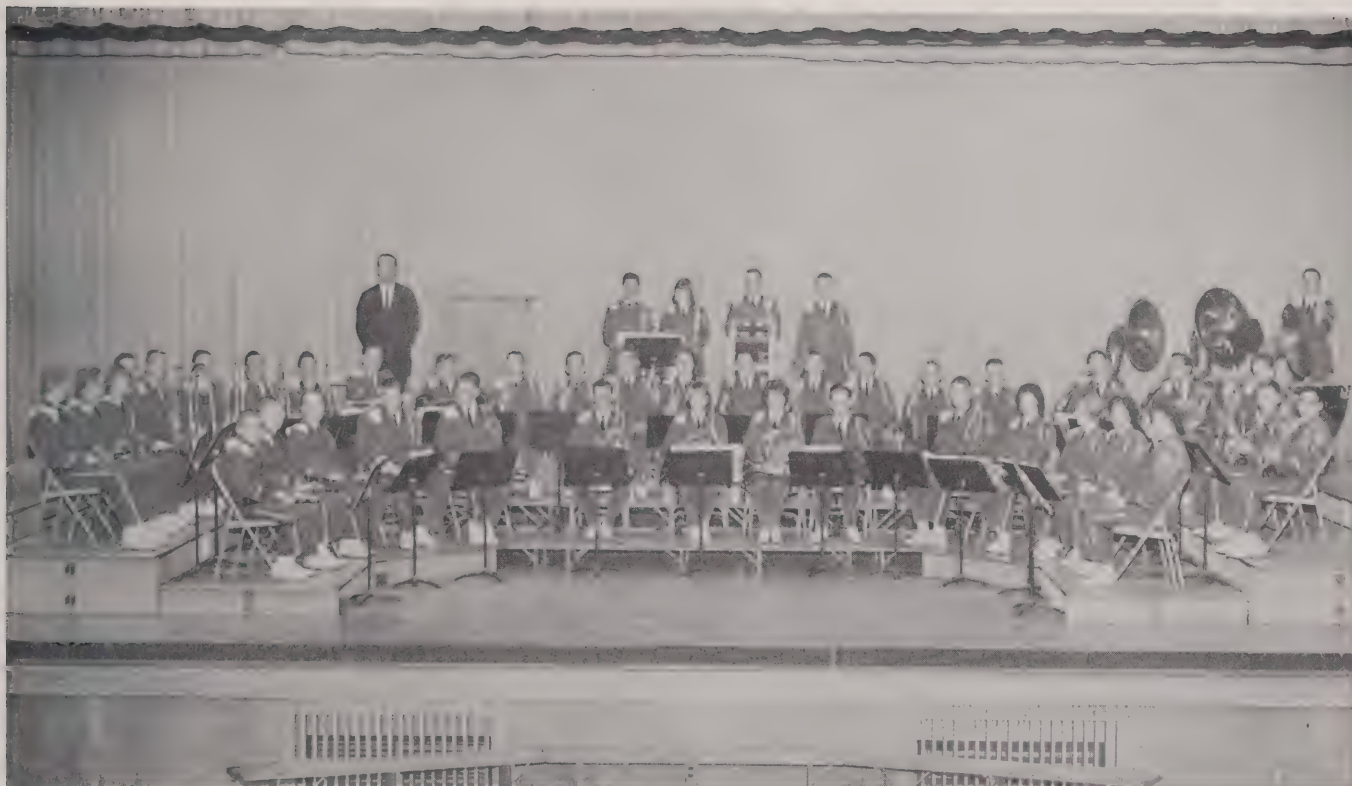

The purpose of the Glee Club is to give a deeper understanding and appreciation of a wide variety of music to everyone. Spirituals, pops, religious, patriotic, and folk songs help reach this goal. The Glee Club officers for 1960-1961 were Stanley Wood, President; Judith Prior, Vice-President; Maureen Molloy, Secretary; and Annette Horne, Treasurer.

November brought the first major concert, which was held at the West Boylston Congregational Church. Following that event, the Glee Club performed at a Thanksgiving Day Assembly. That assembly was held on the athletic field. Songs of Christmas cheer, another concert, and participation in the all-district concert at Fitchburg High School in January followed. In March, our Glee Club performed with the Worcester Youth Orchestra. In April and May, an exchange concert was conducted with the Club singing at Coventry, Rhode Island, in April and the Coventry Glee Club visiting us in May. Thus,

Shrewsbury High School is proud of its active Glee Club and of its five all-state members: Stanley Wood, Larry Price, Judith Prior, Judith Wheeler, and Frances Savage.

Band

The Shrewsbury High School Band has participated in many events this year and, in general, has presented excellent music to the student body. Its officers were: Marilyn Reiman, President; Richard Jewell, Vice-President; and Pauline Steinberg, Secretary-Treasurer.

New uniforms for Band members resulted from a ticket drive on October 1. The Coventry Rhode Island Band were the guests of Shrewsbury on April 28, a pleasurable day for all. On May 6, they participated in the new drill competition as well as the usual judging. A combined concert at Coventry took place on May 12. At this event, Band members found much enjoyment, and represented Shrewsbury High School in a courteous and friendly fashion. The Band participated in the Memorial Day exercises at Lake Quinsigamond and the center of Shrewsbury. These performances all contributed greatly to the main objective of the Band — to bring culture, in as varied a form as they are capable, to the school and to the community.

The Orchestra

This year the orchestra was under the able leadership of Arnold Cary, President; Emile Pappazisis, Vice-President; Ann Stearns, Secretary; and Margaret Russell, Treasurer; with Mr. Robert Narducci, Conductor.

The Christmas season was highlighted by the Christmas Concert. This year our musicians combined with the Worcester Youth Orchestra conducted by Mr. Harry Levenson. On May 6, the orchestra traveled to Lunenburg and participated in the annual Music Festival.

Richard Riding and Arnold Cary had the honor of being selected and the privilege to play in the All State concert, which was held in West Springfield.

Class Day and Graduation were highlighted by the Orchestra's magnificent playing of the regal Pomp and Circumstance.

Gym Leadership Club

Gym Leadership is a newly organized club. This club is designed to help the maintenance of the Gym classes. Every boy is to act as a leader at all times, and is to know the rules for all the games that are played during the Gym classes.

The organization meets twice a week, during which every boy works on the apparatus he feels he can do best on. Every member is required to be familiar with every apparatus, but is allowed to excel in one or two.

Spotting is thought to be as important as working on the apparatus itself; therefore, spotting is stressed deeply in this club.

This year the club will receive one credit towards graduation.

The Gym Team presented its third yearly exhibition, which was held April, 1961, and was very successful.

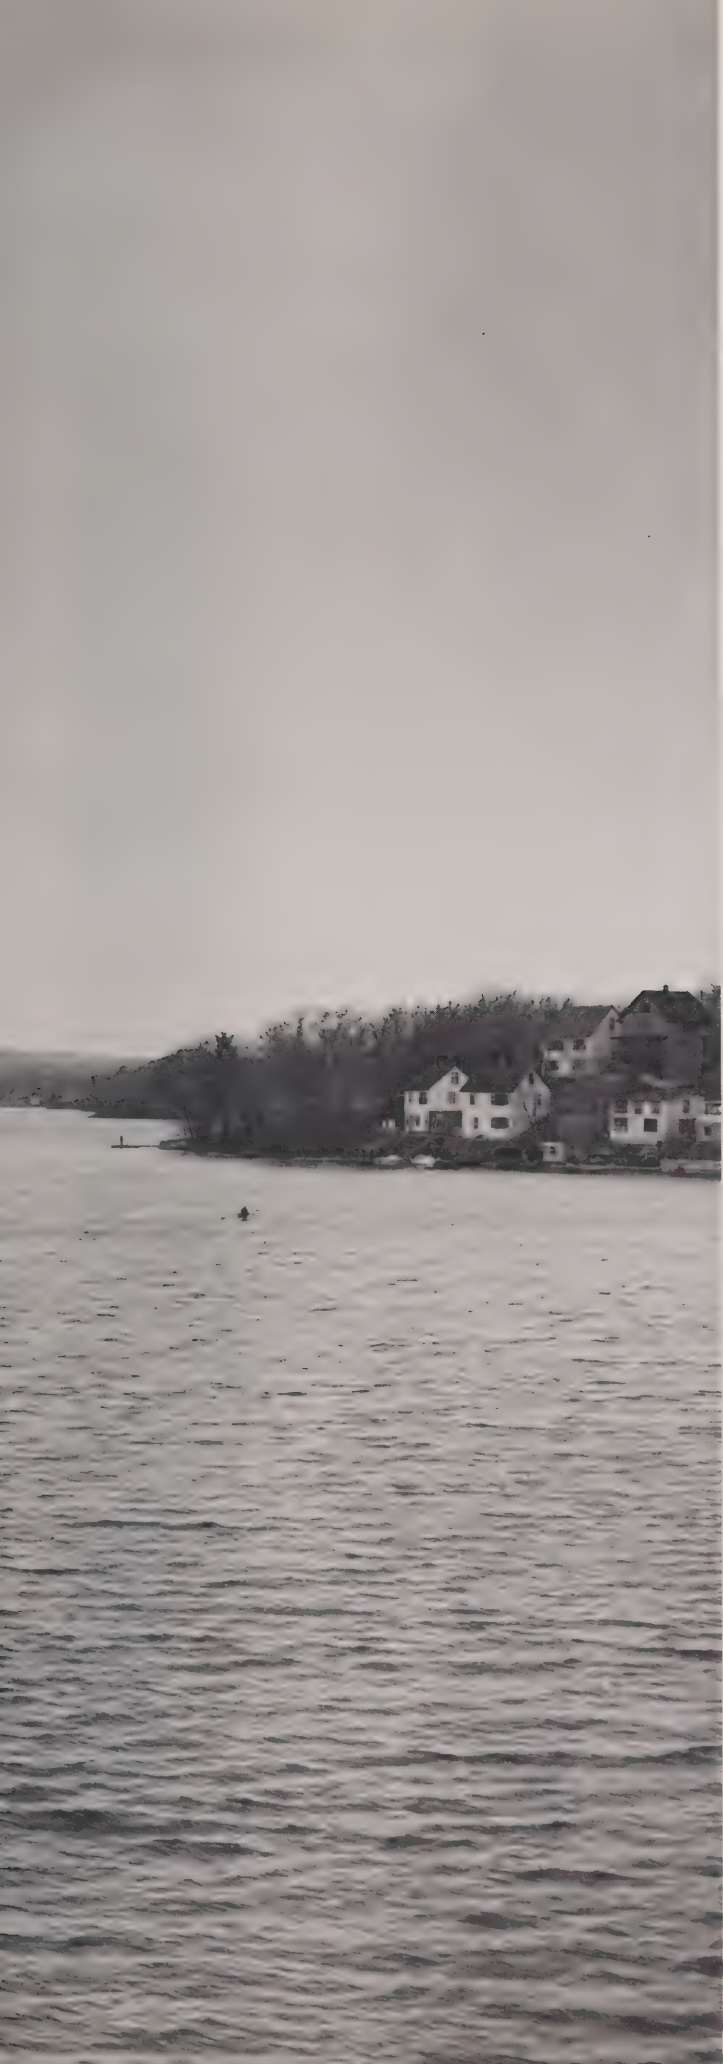

The team officers are: Richard Dupre (Captain), and Richard Pinto (Secretary). The coaches are: Mr. Klem-inich. and Mr. Marchisio.

The club increased greatly in numbers in two years, and will surely increase in the future.

Cheerleaders

The cheering squad of Shrewsbury Junior-Senior High School consists of nine vivacious girls: Pamela Grosso, Captain; Mary Collamore, Marianne Perreault, Linda Parmenter, Patricia Maurello, Sheryl Giofreda, Judith Dufrense, Carole Kilroy, and Claudette Lessard. They are organized for the purpose of inciting interest and arousing enthusiasm among the students and encouraging all to support their teams, by attending games and cheering the boys on to victory. The cheerleaders participated in the football rallies and the basketball rally which were held in the gymnasium. Several speakers were present to further stimulate a sense of loyalty and zeal in support of our teams.

With the advent of the basketball season the cheerleaders spent their time perfecting their new basketball uniforms which consisted of navy-blue jackets, and yellow blouses.

The cheering squad is chosen by a committee composed of members from the Student Council, the faculty, and the advisers. The voting usually takes place one month after basketball season has ended. When voting for a cheerleader, one looks for personality, pep, and appearance.

If our athletic teams have been triumphant, it has been more than partially due to our cheerleaders, who have added zest and color to all our games.

Ground. Sticks. Ground. Sticks.

The hockey season lasted a bit longer this year since the Wachusett game, postponed earlier in the season, was played later than usual. This game was nearly cancelled because of the darkness and bitter cold.

The girls had a peppy and rather successful season with Ellen Breen and Sandy Carlson as Co-Captains and Elizabeth Schold and Margaret Russell as Managers.

The senior girls, still with much spirit, are certain that next year's team will profit by their example and fortitude. We advise next year's squad to take mittens, kerchiefs, and several packages of gum when they line the field next September to launch a new season.

The goalie cage should be well protected next year, however, the smiles and determination of Sue Jacobs and Pat Daugnikas will be missed. Lois Basilissa and Donna Long are not only giving up the back-field positions, but the back seat on the bus on the way to hockey games. Phyllis Beaudry leaves her sister an excellent reputation to live up to. Jean Le-hane, Debbie Mitchell, Marjorie Maurello, and Gay Rogers hope that all their spirit and "will to win" has rubbed off on the other team members. They also leave a song or two for those long bus rides home when the girls' spirits have been dampened a bit due to a defeat.

To Miss Hall they leave a sign, "get in there and run," so that she may save her vocal cords. The squad appreciates all she has done for them, and wish to thank her for her invaluable assistance.

Make a Goal.

Come on, Jan.

Girls' Basketball

A spirited group, to say the least!! This year's basketball team was led by co-captains, Clare Packard and Rosalind Glenn. The girls' good sportsmanship and enthusiasm never declined despite a heavy schedule of 14 games. They certainly will never forget the few closely contested, breath-taking games that they really deserved to win. Although the win column looks a little pale, the girls are to be congratulated. The mid-court line was well controlled by Marilyn Reiman with many spectacular jumps and saves. Terry Jones led the Jayvees to many victories. Marcia Harrington and Ann Stearns, the popular and capable managers, not only timed and scored the games, but cheered them on in many ways.

To next year's team, we leave plenty of room in the win column, a vast amount of experience, and our best wishes. To Miss Hall, we leave fond memories of excitement, frustration, long practice, and six seniors who are grateful to her.

Nice one, Jan!

Hoop it up, Marilyn.

Football

After getting off to a rough start in a game with Marlboro the Shrewsbury football squad, under the leadership of coaches Mario Marchisio, John Flynn, and John Mazeika, came back to defeat Trade High of Worcester 8-0 in a thrilling game on the new athletic field on Oak Street. Shrewsbury dropped the next game to a powerful South High squad. The team then retaliated by taking Wachusett 14-6 at Holden. Although the team lost the rest of the games during the season they never stopped playing heads-up football. Their best game of the season was played against the speedy, well-balanced team from St. John's. In this game both the line and the backfield played with a spirit to be envied by any team or coach. In the annual Thanksgiving Day game Shrewsbury dropped a heart-breaker to the zealous Auburn "Dandies". One of Shrewsbury's best drives of the game was stopped on the half-foot line by the half-time gun. Shrewsbury lost 16-6.

Throughout the season many members of the Shrewsbury squad put in starring performances. The three stand-outs of the season were G. Burns, M. Aramento, and P. Tomaio. These three players lead the attack against Marlboro, Trade, Wachusett, St. John's, and Auburn. This backfield was backed up by a hard hitting line and fast moving ends. Although the season was not all the team or the school had hoped for it was inspiring to see the team making progress. Next year's team looks forward to even more success.

This year the Shrewsbury basketball team, under the leadership of Michael Klemminich and Clifford Nordwell, went on to its second successive Central Mass. Conference Championship. Sparked by the senior quintet, the squad came out of league play with a perfect record. The climax of the season came with the second Northbridge game. Shrewsbury had lost no games and Northbridge had lost only one game, their first with Shrewsbury. A win for Northbridge would force Shrewsbury into play-offs for the crown. If Shrewsbury won they would have clear title to the crown. The second game went into two overtimes. Shrewsbury won in the second, sudden death, overtime. But the Northbridge coach protested the game and it was nullified. In the third meeting of these two clubs Shrewsbury was out to score a victory which would be remembered. With four seconds to go the score was tied and Northbridge was trying to force Shrewsbury to shoot. Mike Foley went in for a lay-up and scored the two points needed to win the game. Shrewsbury captured the Central Mass. Crown with a 45-43 victory over the Northbridge "Rams". In tournament play Shrewsbury went all the way to the finals in the Bay State Tournament. In the finals they lost to Millbury in a rough game at Brandeis University.

Throughout the season it was impossible to pick out one player on the Shrewsbury squad who might be called the star. All members of the team had their jobs to do and they all did them well. The loss of Lee Pine, due to a hip infection, at mid-year was felt by the team particularly on rebounding. However, the team made up for this loss with a little more speed and working for the "good" shots. The members of the starting team were: Captain George Perkins, forward; Lee Pine, forward; Seth Cummings, forward; Roy Chesley, center; Mike Foley, guard; and Mike Costello, guard.

Along with bringing home team honors these six players also brought home individual honors. Mike Costello and Roy Chesley were selected members of the Bay State Tournament Class B All Star Team. Roy Chesley, Mike Foley, Seth Cummings, and Lee Pine were selected as members of the Central Mass. Conference All Star Team. And George Perkins and Mike Costello received honorable mention on the Conference All Star Team.

Take it away, Seth.

Push it in, boys.

Cross Country Team

This year the Shrewsbury Cross-Country team went on to its second successive successful season. The team, lead by captain Arnold Cary and coached by Michael Kleminich, practiced diligently and built up a desire to win which took them to the State Championship Class D and fourth place in the New England meet. The Shrewsbury High team, paced by the seniors, Arnold Cary, Seth Cummings, and Dick Dupre, brought home honors in three other big meets. In the annual Knights of Columbus race in Worcester, Shrewsbury took second place. South of Worcester captured the first place crown. At the Wachusett Invitational, Shrewsbury again came away with second place. Fitchburg captured the Class A crown with a total of 36 points (low score designates the winner). Shrewsbury was second with 57, and South was third with 76 points. In the Central Massachusetts Conference Meet at Wachusett, Shrewsbury took first place for the second year. Shrewsbury was winner with the low of 25 points, Wachusett was second with 50 points, and Northbridge was third with 77 points.

Through the season many of the Shrewsbury harriers captured individual honors as well as bringing home team honors. In the Knights of Columbus race, four Shrewsbury runners were in the top twenty. They were Seth Cummings, who took third place in the meet, Dick Dupre, Arnold Cary, and George Flynn. These four runners were joined by Dave Hanson in the Wachusett Invitational Meet as Shrewsbury again came home with second place. In the Central Massachusetts Conference Meet at Wachusett, these five runners brought the honors home to Shrewsbury with a clean edge by capturing third, fourth, fifth, sixth, and seventh place. Also among the top twenty in this race were John Campanale and Steve Tosi. George Flynn paced the Shrewsbury harriers in this race. In the State meet, these five runners again captured places in the top twenty. Seth took second place. The season was very gratifying to the coach and team alike. Next year's team is looking forward to an equally successful season.

Track

R. Chesley, E. Berberian, P. Posson, G. Flynn, R. Dupre, A. Cary, G. Burns.

This year the Shrewsbury track team goes on to its third season. It will be under the guidance of Mario Machiscio, a new member of the coaching staff formerly of West Boylston. In the various track events Shrewsbury has had entries in shot put, discus, high jump, broad jump, and the following running events: 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash, 440 yard run, 880 yard run, mile run, and 880 yard relay. The team has been building its potential over the past two years and looks forward to a successful season.

Golf

Under the leadership of Mr. Paul Zaido, the Shrewsbury High linksmen will be looking forward to a very successful season. Due to the loss of only one player through graduation, the Colonials expect to present almost the same team they had during the 1960 season. As in past years, the Colonials will be competing against five other teams which make up the Eastern Central League. The schedule consists of ten matches, thus allowing the Colonials to meet each team twice, (once home and once away). Shrewsbury is again expected to play its home matches at Juniper Hill Golf Club.

Crew

Although the crew got off to a late start this year the boys, under the able guidance of Coach Ken Burns, hope to have a highly successful season. With graduation last year the crew lost only three of its varsity members. Six members of the varsity squad return to action this year.

This year the season will be highlighted by a cup race with Springfield Tech, the staging of the Eastern Collegiate Sprints, and the New England Schoolboy Regatta.

Baseball

Every year when this volume goes to press, we have the waning of basketball and hockey and the beginning of baseball. For that reason we have very little in the way of factual matter to record here. Our prose deals with the predictions, hopes and yearnings. But after all, isn't that what most sports columns are made of? We can tell you this for a certainty, though: the veterans who may be returning for another season will be Bob Garabedian, Pete Tomaiolo, Bill Woodruff, John Driscoll, Ed Pescaro, Seth Cummings, and George Perkins. In addition to all these, there was a multitude of aspiring players who gathered on the diamond in the rear of the school in the first week in April who had hoped to get Coach Mike Kleminich's approval by their ability and zest.

The Shrewsbury nine will face a goodly array of fast ball clubs from Central Massachusetts. We make no prediction that the nine will clinch any title but you can be sure that each ball game will be well played and that Mike Kleminich will be proud of his boys.

The school diamond should be ready for use this year and in light of that fact we may get a satisfactory turn-out of student supporters to cheer the boys on to victory.

CONGRATULATIONS and best wishes! When you take time out for fun and relaxation think of me and of ten pin bowling at town and country bowl. If you've never tried this popular sport then you don't know what great enjoyment you're missing. If you have bowled ten pins, then you can appreciate this tremendous popularity. Try it once and you'll be an ardent booster and someday you may become an outstanding ten pin bowler like me!

Good luck...
